I. INTRODUCTION

Don't let the entities sometimes childish or simple ways of speaking fool you to believe they are stupid. It is important to understand that they are eternal beings, that they cannot die. The same individuals who deceived the ancient Egyptian World are deceiving us today. They know everything about us. They are not human and lack the fluent dynamics of our soul consciousness and when they communicate with us for a longer time, we can sense their lack of social skills. Therefore, they work with and use Negative 4D Humans, in other words Negative Galactics but they also use humans from Earth, which will be evident from the messages shared below. What they are, are esoterically and spiritually very advanced interdimensional beings that can affect us and everything around us. As will become clear they prefer to choose a character and present themselves as something we already accept and believe in, they seldom show how they really look themselves. They are not shape shifters as is the popular notion and they don't look as they are being depicted. They are highly psychologically advanced and can alter how we feel and how we see them. A good parable is to think of them as inducing hallucinations, that is we can't see beyond the hallucination and we therefore believe what we are seeing is what is real and what is there. This also applies to our emotions where they can induce feelings and experiences. These methods are used when we leave this world and find us in the Astral, which is their world. From this point we are deceived to believe we have had an encounter with the Divine, and we stop searching or looking for the real essence of where we are, and enter the wall of white light or the white tunnel of light where we end up returning to Earth, memory wiped, and without any understanding of who we are and why we are here. Remember this when you see these Reptilian messages below.

I also need to point out here, since many might not have heard my story and this might be the first thing they read or see which will make it all seem very incoherent, that this is just a selection of the Reptilian messages and not the full story or the full understanding. My story and the complete understanding that has come out of this experience can be found on my YouTube Channel, where I have shared my journey of finding the truth of our human experience, see link:

<https://youtube.com/@lionman.mysoldier?si=sxuNFLev81dcN5qr>

However, there are somethings that are better written than spoken since everyone will have to understand what has taken place, as this does not concern just me but all of us. Whatever you believe about me or this message, I'm doing it not for my self but for you. I'm going to do everything that I can to help when the time is here, it doesn't matter what you think about me or believe to be true now. What is written, and the images I have recreated from my visions can be found on my Telegram Channel, Lionman:

<https://t.me/LionmanMySpiritualJourneyToLyra>.

The aim of this selection of Reptilian messages is to show they already knew who I am, before I knew. And, that they can see into the future and intercept messages and communications from the true Divine before they take place, to try alter their meaning. It is also meant to show, though the full energetic experience is lost in the texts, the personality of the Reptilians. This Reptilian Communication reveals that the Reptilians knows about the approaching Divine Intervention, the Event. They are twisting the truth to serve their purposes, and using New Age terminology. Instead of speaking about the real message from the Divine “the Spiritual Rebirth of Humanity”, they refer to it as the “Ascension” in an effort to have me focus on egoistic self-fulfilment and the avoidance of any truth that could upset my emotions. All in an attempt to prevent me from reconnecting to my Lyran Family who is here on behalf of all of us, by God’s will and grace to help us see through the false light so we can take the necessary leap of faith that will be required when God is going to physically intervene. We are not alone.

I want to mention here, that I was completely focused on my life and becoming an airline pilot, when I suddenly more than 5 years ago was intercepted by a Reptilian/Grey UAP while flying my private plane in the traffic circuit at Västerås airport (ESOW), Sweden. A couple of years later, about 3 years ago now, I was awakened by the Spirit World and shortly after contacted by the Greys as I perceived it then, but it has become clear the ones behind the scene pulling all the strings are the Reptilian Beings and the Greys are purely, in most cases anyway, probes (small biological robots) sent by the Reptilians to do their bidding in our reality. That is why we only hear about the Greys because they are closer to us in physicality and can materialise in our 3D physical environment. The Reptilians are interdimensional beings and they cannot take physical shape here and may encounter difficulties to enter our reality on their own, especially to a precise location in time and space, and therefore at times, require human help through magic. The majority of humanity cannot see them, though many can sense them and often believe them to be apparitions or ghosts.

All this has meant that I have had to try to figure it out, why I was being contacted and by whom. I have always had psychic abilities and in my twenties I started to have visions but all of this has intensified exponentially these last 3 years, and even if I’m the same person, my core beliefs and understandings which has been the foundation for my identity has been completely re-understood. With this in mind, you will read these early messages from the negative entities below as I received them, in the same time I was trying to figure out who they were and what had happened to me, and I didn’t know then what I know now. It has been hard to read these messages and put them together to show you, so you could better understand the human problem. A few months after the last message shared here (see Message 18, page 85 below) a Reptilian being named REA almost fully possessed me when my Lyran Family, without my knowledge, was completely blocked from contacting me for a period of 6-7 months, though they tried to warn me just some months before by sending a vision that I didn’t understand at the time. I survived a four-week attack by the Reptilian Beings and the Satanic Luciferian Cabal, in other words the Deep State, who tortured me in an effort to make me comply and accept to become fully possessed by REA, or leave this life to become free of the Reptilian demon. He had attached himself on my right shoulder, projecting pain and death anxiety of the worst kind imaginable throughout the core of my body, while showing me, in intense prolonged visions a bloody pen dripping on a contract laying on the floor, with 2 black leather gloves beside it, for me to sign. This is how they ultimately control people if they need a certain, to them important person, to comply. The contract with the devil that you hear about at the crossroads is real.

The messages themselves here below are not dark or uncomfortable to read as they were meant to deceive, as they were meant to make me trust what was being conveyed. The only thing they can’t replicate is our energy footprint, once you learn to recognize the energy of someone they can no longer deceive you. That is why they no longer can deceive me as they did in the beginning since I can read their energy. Reading energy means that you sense something that you can't sense with your 5 senses, that you sense it with your psychic sense, that is your 6th sense that we all have and need to relearn how to use. The Reptilians are very open nowadays when they threaten me, as they are failing to deceive me. Sometimes they still try to hide their energy footprint, and if I have a low energy transmission from my Lyran Family, as it is at times, I need to be very careful with any information conveyed as the negative entities are always listening, waiting for a chance to alter the course of action.

With that being said, I hope those that read this will start to see some of the deceptions transferred directly from these negative Reptilian entities on different channels and platforms, as they are to be seen everywhere. The Deep State wants us to see and interact with their information, and if you are one of those that might be listening to or reading these deceptions, especially through different Channelling sources, that you will find a way to understand though it might require you to change how you perceive yourself and the world around you. There is very little true information left out there since the Deep State has cleaned, prepped, and programmed Google, Facebook, YouTube, and many more so the truth will not appear when you search for something, and the only ones who are allowed to become large, to become influencers are those who either unintentionally or intentionally work in the interest of the Deep State. I promise you it will be hard to find information like this because this is the only one out there.

II. THE REPTILIAN MESSAGES

Message 1: 2020-//-//

From: KYO, a Reptilian under the false pretence as a Benevolent Galactic Being.

Comment:

At this point I did not know who had contacted me and why, as I had not met or spoken to my Lyran Family yet. The Reptilians used these expressions in the message below; “a space family from the future” and “We will watch your back”, to confuse me before the Lyran Interstellar Forces would reach me, which happened several months later. As will become more evident further on here, the Reptilians can see into the future and eavesdrop, and intercept a Telepathic Communication, which this message below is a prime example of. The real and true message where the expressions had been used by my Lyran Family took place the year after, on April 2, 2021. The Reptilians didn’t get it quite right though, as the Lyrans said “We are your space family. We are your brothers and sisters from the future” and “We have your back!”, see page 1 in the Supplement. Another telling expression from the Reptilian KYO is that he refers to us as “earthlings”. I have heard this expression several times, especially from Channellers whose messages you will encounter on YouTube and other places. Just to be clear, only a Negative Entity of a lower spiritual consciousness from 4D will refer to us in such a way.

As I said above, I was trying to understand why I had been contacted. I later thought it must have been the Greys, as they visited me sometime after. I now know it was the Reptilians who had sent the Greys to my home. I have spoken about the UFO Visitation by the Greys in this video, see link:

Message:

>> KYO:

- We were thinking, when will we meet him, how will he be.
We were wondering, not to be bad but most earthlings are quite rough to be around, but now that we met you and learnt who you are, we are pleasantly surprised, you are so good.
We must admit we all love you here.
We are so happy to have the chance to know you.
It couldn’t have been a better person than you.

You have a family here, a space family from the future.
We will watch your back as humans says. <<

Message 2: 2020-08-08

From: “Light Beings”, Reptilians under the false pretence as Benevolent Higher Dimensional Spirit Beings.

Comment:

In the beginning of this message, they mention Tina from the Family of Light, who in all actuality was a Reptilian Being portraying to be a Benevolent Higher Dimensional Spirit Being. “She” was the first interdimensional contact proclaiming to be my “Guide” (“she” is in quotes because Reptilians are genderless). From this point new so-called “Guides” started to contact me and show up regularly and many times replacing each other with new ones, this increased the confusion in trying to figure out who they really were and why I was being contacted. At the time of this message, however, after searching around for information about “Spirit Guides” and listening to many sources claiming to have knowledge about the spiritual, I thought this was normal and not dangerous, and I therefore accepted that it was my “Spirit Guides” who were here to guide and help me. How wrong I was...

I had never heard about the “Family of Light” or the “Galactic Federation of Light” before. I wasn’t religious or particularly spiritual when I was awakened by spirits at an old Viking cult place, and I had never heard about the New Age then, were these concepts often are mentioned. For the record, as I now have the knowledge and understanding I lacked then, there is no “Family of Light”, or a “Galactic Federation of Light”, these assemblies or organizations are fabrications invented by the Reptilians, and are connected to the pre-programming intended to make us go into the false light, when we find ourselves in the Astral plane after death. This imprinted subconscious “Light Worship” comes from the 4 Dimension.

Light in itself is divine in essence and the ultimate expression of Life Force, however the light we experience in this material world is either artificial light or physical light from our sun, stars, or natural phenomenon, like electrostatic discharges through the atmosphere, to mention a few. There is, however, something else, there is a metaphysical light. Very few people have the ability to see this light, and for most it is an unseen invisible light, though it cannot be seen it can be sensed or felt as its essence is not that it is light, as that is only its secondary nature, but that it is divine energy. Energy can almost always be sensed or felt but light cannot always be seen due to the limited spectrum of visible light that our eyes can perceive. This understanding is very crucial because all things visible can be falsified, replicated, or duplicated by these eternal demonic beings but they cannot replicate our energy footprints or completely hide the energies they radiate. For example, if you believe in Jesus, you can meet and see Jesus in the Astral plane, but you won’t be able to feel the real Jesus, as the entities cannot replicate his energy footprint. Therefore, if you ever had the chance to meet the real Jesus and thereby remembered his energy footprint, even though he is fully visible in front of you and is talking to you, you would sense and feel that this is not the real Jesus. The same applies to a relative, a mother, a father, or a child that you may meet in the Astral World. “Visible Light” is only a secondary nature of energy, no matter if the light is artificial, physical, or metaphysical. In our world light is by its very nature physical and very few of us can perceive metaphysical light. This means that even though light is beautiful, and light is divine, worshipping light means we will be seduced by the false light.

We are not light, we are Divine Energy that transcends all things, time, space, and matter.

When we leave our physical bodies behind, we will find ourselves in the Astral plane, that is the 4D and most of us never reach further before we are sent back. The control over humanity is exercised from this Astral plane by eternal and ancient demonic beings we now recognize as Reptilians. I have previously said that they know exactly who we are when we arrive after death, and once there in the Astral World we will be met with what we believe in. They can shock and dazzle us with light and kaleidoscopes, and flood us with energy of bliss and ecstasy to seduce us, if they need to convince us of their divinity. Their aim is to send us back, and only if we learn the truth, and are able to understand and connect to the true Divine, to our true origin, God, we can no longer be deceived.

When receiving this message, I did not pick up that they said, “what you are”, instead of “who you are”, as I had no clue of my mission. Since, at this point in time, I did not know I was sent here from the future by my Lyran Family on a divine mission by God.

Message:

>> “Light Beings”:

- We are several here, Tina is not here she will return.
You are part of a greater plan of earth.
They know what you are.

Me:

- They know who I am? What do you mean?

Light Being:

- No, but they do know what you are.
Do you believe that you are the only one that knows that we are not alone?
The only pilot that doesn't understand there are others here?
The only one that has contact with us?
You are not. <<

Message 3: 2020-//-//-

From: Tina from the Family of Light, a Reptilian under the false pretence as a Benevolent Higher Dimensional Spirit Being.

Comment:

At the time of this message, I was not aware of that there was a difference between a Telepathic Communication and Channelled Messages, and I did not understand the dangers of trying to contact higher dimensions as the dimension closest to us is the 4D, the Astral World, from which the Reptilian control of our world originates. Here is a good example from my notes, of how I was trained and guided by the Reptilians to strengthen their communication and contact with me. Something the Reptilians often do to strengthen the connection is to ask you to count numbers in sequences, as it is like tuning in the right frequency on a radio receiver, which means they can locate you in time and space and enter the room you are in, and eventually take over your mind and body temporarily, if they so decide. Without going into the differences between a Channelled Message and a Telepathic Communication here, I just want to mention that when you see a Channeller change facial expression and body posture after deep relaxation (there are many of those to watch on YouTube), it means the interdimensional Reptilian being has walked into the body of the Channeller, which is not a possession, as that requires the Reptilian to attach himself to the Spirit Body, using a magic process to bring forth the necessary energy. If you want to know more about Channelling and Telepathic Communication, you can watch these 3 videos:

Telepathic Exercise: I visualised it by seeing white letters on a black background in my mind, word for word. Managed well up to 5 letter words. It strengthens a weak communication, as a receiver turning into to the frequency. <<

From: The Greys and the Reptilians under the false pretence as Benevolent Galactic Beings.

Comment:

This message is much more important than what first meets the eye. This is straight from the horse's mouth, our world is controlled by the MATRIX; "our worlds are woven together [...] where dream and reality become one".

At this point in my journey, I had already seen the Greys, the small biological robots, as they had visited my home, so I knew the Greys were real and not fiction. By now, I believed that most of the contact I had experienced thus far came from the Greys, though it in fact had been the Reptilians who were behind everything in the end. So, I didn't push them away, as I wondered why they had contacted me, though I found them very uncomfortable to be around. I still had not been approached by my Lyran Family, or knew about my deep connection with Lyra. I did not even have a clue that they existed. I later understood that these ancient demonic beings were trying to show me their world and what was possible in it, so I would join them voluntarily. When I didn't the Reptilians changed focus and tried to possess me as a last effort to make me do what they needed me to do. So, in retrospect, what they wanted from me, was to make me turn away from God and my Lyran Family, in an effort to control or stop the Event. By God's good grace, I have learned what I need, to reach the understanding and contact necessary with my Lyran Family to make it this far.

These last days, as I have been writing this message, October 13, 2023, I have had several out of body experiences into the Astral World, as I am about to pass through. The Lyran Interstellar Forces are here every day and night now, because the Reptilians are doing everything they can, to stop me and this message. The Astral World is malleable and not like ours, I don't remember so much, as my Lyran Family erases my memory as soon as I'm back in my body, to spare me from what I had to see there. However, sometimes they let me remember small glimpses, or pieces, so I know what to expect when I pass through. I'm going to talk about this at another time and place, I just wanted to mention that what I've seen from their world thus far explains this message, from many months ago, even further.

The flash vision embedded in the message came from the small biological robots, the Greys that previously had visited my home. The reason that I knew that the flash vision in this message came from the small ones, is that the vision was very scarce of details and highly computer like, not vivid and intricate as the Reptilian Visions. The message itself is with great certainty originating from the Reptilians, obviously relayed through their small workers. They say in this message that they will visit but they never came again after their first visit.

Message:

>> Greys & Reptilians:

- On Monday you can see us, look towards the clouds.

9 moons away, 10 suns, 9 worlds, our world is yours.
What is normal becomes special, our worlds are woven together, present tense, past tense and future becomes one, a web of dreams.
Our world is open to you, woven of silk threads, where dream and reality become one.

We have waited so long; we didn't think you would wake up.
You are important to the world, not many people know.
We are so happy that we can see each other.

I receive a flash vision of a mobile phone and see a sky with clouds on the screen. One of the clouds looking like a snowball had 3 black dots inside it. Meaning: The Greys want me to take a picture when they visit this time. I didn't take one when they visited my home previously. <<

From: KYO, a Reptilian under the false pretence as a Benevolent Galactic Being.

Comment:

The Reptilian message below, contains many intercepted parts of communication and expressions, not quite right but similar to those messages that I would receive a few months later from my Lyran Family, to be exact July 7, 2021 (see page 2 in the Supplement). From what we have seen thus far, it starts to be quite obvious by now, that the Reptilians were trying to intercept the future communications, they knew I would have with my Lyran Family a few months later. They were trying to use the expressions, and alter the meaning of what they knew the Lyrans soon would tell me. This trick made it very hard at the time to grasp who were contacting me and why. It's easy to see it now after the fact. I will mention a few examples of these Reptilian interceptions here, that may be compared with the Lyran Communications I would receive several months later (see the enclosed Supplement).

In the Lyran Communications I was told who the Lyrans were and who I was, it was very hard to believe at first due to its content and after all the chaotic messages I had got from the Reptilians. I had been in contact with my "Spirit Guides", as I perceived it then, for more than a year, if my memory serves me well, before my Lyran Family finally was able to reach me here in our 3D reality. The Reptilians did everything they could to hinder the Lyrans from contacting me, and at the same time they fed me with false information. I have told the full story concerning this in "My Spiritual Journey to Lyra" on my YouTube Channel, but in short, for those that may read this but have never heard my story; our Space Families from the future who live in a higher reality, who are spiritually advanced beings, cannot reach us with ease here in our 3D reality, as it is controlled by the 4D entities. The Reptilians in the 4D who are spiritually negatively advanced beings can also see into the future like my Lyran Family, and as I previously explained they are therefore able to plant words and messages from Lyra and intercept them before they are delivered by my Lyran Family. That is the reason why you will see the same words or similar expressions, especially in the early messages before I knew what was really going on.

When my Lyran Family finally was able to contact me, I didn't know who they were and I didn't remember them like they remembered me, so when they first approached me by saying "Lion... Lion...Lion" to get my attention, I thought they were just another set of these "Spirit Guides", and I didn't take their contact attempts as seriously as I should have. I later understood that my so called "Spirit Guides" were actually Reptilians deceiving me. All this confusion led to me being possessed, luckily not completely but the Reptilian, REA managed to attach himself to my Spirit Body. The Lyran Interstellar Forces, my family saved me from the Reptilians and I learned the truth, who they were, and how to speak Telepathically with them and contact them safely. The message below is from KYO, a Reptilian trying to intercept and alter the meaning of the true message from Lyra. Remember the Lyrans are us in the future, they are humans, but some are Lions.

I will revoke some of the Reptilian claims in this message as they are a deception and untrue. The truth is that I was sent here from Lyra on a mission by the Divine, contrary to what the Reptilians are trying to contend here. From looking at this message we can also see that the Reptilians were trying to strengthen their influence and contact with me. They had started to do Telepathic exercises with me to "evolve our communication". In the second paragraph of the message, we can see how these entities from the 4D move interdimensionally and also that they sometimes can't get through and enter our reality, effectively being locked out from our time and space. They also give us an idea of how they do it by "squeezing" energies, which I interpret as squeezing two dimensional layers of space time together until they are so close that they are able to slip through. It seems my Lyran Family does not have these problems, at least not in the same way as the negative beings have. The biggest problem Benevolent Higher Dimensional Beings, like my Lyran Family have from my experience thus far, is that they get attacked by the 4D entities when they try to reach us, and that they often get locked out from communicating with us, which is the reason why so few of them are able to talk to us. Otherwise, they seem to move effortlessly in and out of our reality. Being connected to our true origin the Life Force of the Creation, as Higher Dimensional Beings are, means they do not need to fight or "squeeze" anything, as they can move instantly everywhere and whenever they want in spirit form, and with much less effort in physical form than the Negative 4D Beings.

Interestingly, we see the Reptilians, though not telling me who they really are, as they are portraying to be Benevolent Higher Dimensional Beings, actually indirectly telling us who they are, and revealing that they are more or less immortal; "For us there is really no distinction between us and afterlife [...] and [we] don't attach the feelings humans do to it". This is why they should never be underestimated, being socially unadapt compared to us, thus looking seemingly unintelligent, doesn't mean they are harmless. They certainly are not, as they have deceived us and controlled our reality for longer than we can even contemplate still being the same individuals for all that time. For them we exist in this reality in a blink of an eye. It has not always been like that, and now when God is intervening not only will we understand our true selves, our true origin but we will understand the prison all these souls has been in. We will understand it all. And these entities with their human counterparts here on Earth, the Deep State, the Occult Secret Societies that controls everything here, will stop at nothing to hinder us from finding out that God truly exist, and reconnecting to the Divine and become Spiritually Rebirthed, and enter God's Kingdom, Heaven on Earth that has always been here waiting for our return. But first we will have "to pass through" much like how the Reptilians describe their interdimensional travels to our space and time. I know most do not still believe something will happen, but it already is. The darkness has lost but there will be things required of us to "pass through" what can stop us is to go against the Spiritual, taking decisions that goes against the Life Force of the Creation, and the Deep State is already planting these spiritual traps. The last days, as I'm writing this, several of the Deep State paid spiritual or extra-terrestrial contact disinformation agents, have uniformly started talking and promoting the idea of "NPCs (Non-Player Characters) persons without souls, background people fully complacent to the MATRIX". Why is this suddenly so important to get people invested in? Because, if you accept that notion you become superior to others (spiritual mistake number 1, because we are all equal), you stop caring for others that you without any real possibility to determine, decide are NPCs that lack importance, and ultimately you don't care if these NPCs live or die, as they are "non-people" to you. Do you recognize who thinks of us as expendable and refer to us as "useless eaters"? Yes, the Satanic Luciferian Cabal, the rich elite implementing the New World Order. Strange coincidence that this spiritual concept of NPCs gives the same result in the human mind as fascism. We will not be brought back to God, if we do not value our fellow humans, if we carry immense hate and disrespect for others, we can disagree, but we must respect each other at all times, because we are all God's children. We are all truly equal, we all have the same origin, the Life Force of the Creation, God. We all have a Soul and when this is over, when we truly understand who we really are, we shall all walk hand in hand in God's Kingdom.

In the message, we see the New Age concept of us being “creators”, in the last sentence of the message, no word about our relationship to God, or the fact that the Reptilians control what we can really successfully manifest here in this reality on a large scale.

Message:

>> KYO:

- In the life before Earth, you sent us a picture.
The picture is you flying a plane from the future.
We have been sent here due to that picture.
It was all planned before you entered a life on earth, we are not here by an accident we were sent here by you.

We have been searching for you, you are one of a kind and very important to us.
You have (before Earth) decided that this would happen.
There is no time-line, no schedule.
We will evolve our communication.
Call that the next second contact.
That will be much more elaborate.

We want you to know that we are always here, just because you can't speak to us or hear us, it doesn't mean we are not here.
There are energies that we can't squash and get through,
it's a very dense and strong energy at the moment that we couldn't penetrate.
It's a good energy and though there are bad energies, this is a good one.
We learned to penetrate it but there will be new energies and new moments when we can't get through and we again have to learn and understand that energy to pass through.
So, there will always be moments when we can't get in touch, but it doesn't mean that we are not here.

We are not those you read about, we call them entities, they have no human soul like we do, and we have never done anything to harm humans.
We both share what you call a soul, but for us there is really no distinction between us and afterlife, we don't see it like you, and don't attach the feelings humans do to it, for us it's nothing special we don't make that distinction.

Mind over matter means more than “if you believe in your dreams the future will materialise”.
You are missing the point here: “You are the creator” so it is much more than what you believe.
You can create. <<

Message 6: 2021-03-21

From: “Galactic”, a Reptilian under the false pretence as a Benevolent Galactic Being.

Comment:

Already from the beginning, I knew something would happen on this Earth that would change everything, as I was told about the Rebirth of Humanity just days before I was awakened by the Spirit World. The messages, on the other hand, that I began receiving talked about an Ascension to a 5D Earth without any spiritual context. We now know these early messages came from the ancient Reptilian Beings. In the beginning when I decided to tell my story, the only ones who were open to my message was those firmly invested in and believing in the New Age. I tried to navigate my journey, seeing all sides, and at the same time I came to understand that they were deceived by the same entities that was talking to me, and that something was much more serious with our human predicament and the evil much worse than I first could have imagined. I did not seek the entities they came to me and turned my world upside down; they knew the Lyrans had sent me here on a mission by the Divine.

This message contains some easy tell-tale signs that it is the Reptilians behind these communications, they like to use expressions like “to our advancement”, and words like “session“, “training” or “test”. The Reptilians and our old aristocratic elite have a very similar way of expressing themselves, having a very elitistic way of thinking and operating, being very goal and numbers oriented, and often choosing words showing academic arrogance. They basically sound like very old and dry men without any emotions.

An example of their sometimes machine-like way of communicating, are the sentence “end of message” in the last paragraph, which is very machine-like and artificial, and not how a spiritually advanced and dynamic Higher Dimensional Being communicates. Again, they are repeating the concept we meet many times in the New Age; “you are a creator”, without conveying the true understanding that we can only create what they allow us to create. For the record, the Lyrans never speak in this way, as can be seen from the selection of messages in the enclosed Supplement here within. Creating or manifesting is a controlled allocation of energies within this world, and not everything can be created or manifested, unless it suits an overall predetermined energy flow controlled by the ancient demonic beings, which will become clearer further along here in the text. In all simplicity, those joining the Secret Societies in the search for riches, fame, and power, and reaching the necessary levels within these criminal occult organizations, where these entities are worshipped behind closed doors in secrecy, will be granted success within this energy system by the Reptilians. However, if we who stand outside of this occult system, seek to create justice and peace on a large scale, worldwide, we will never succeed, and if we try in a small scale in a single case, it can take a lifetime to achieve.

Message 7: 2021-04-03

From: “Galactics”, Reptilians under the false pretence as Benevolent Galactic Beings.

Comment:

This Reptilian message below mentions “the Event” for the first time. I did not understand what it meant at the time and the importance it has for the future of humanity. Not realizing at the time that it was the same message I already had received several months before, just days prior to being awakened by the Spirit World on an old Viking ground. The message that started everything. The message of a “Rebirth”.

The reason I was contacted by these ancient demonic beings, and the cause of all that I suddenly had begun to experience, is surfacing in this Reptilian message, were they tell me; “We need you for a certain event”. We can see from this message, how the darkness is fully aware of that God has put in motion a Spiritual Rebirth of Humanity to bring us back to his Kingdom, Heaven on Earth. The Reptilian entities have been trying to divert humanity from the true message of God, in an effort to affect and alter our predestined divine future, by spreading false spiritual messages. This is many times accomplished through Channellers channelling these entities, either intentionally or unintentionally amongst those seeking spiritual guidance. The Deep State (the Satanic Luciferian Cabal) plants the same Reptilian spiritual concepts in TV, Movies, Spiritual Movements, and Religions with the same purpose. There is a reason why the Deep State sponsor the New Age movement and invites famous Channellers to the United Nations (UN) yearly to channel these entities, while they at the same time are trying to crush Christianity, since there are still true messages within scripture, as my Lyran Family has showed me.

I’m being told one of the greatest Reptilian deceits in this message, that we encounter in so many places; “There is more than one of you as there is more than one of us”, implying that there are several of us living in different time-lines at the same time. This concept or idea constitutes the basis for the notion of; living on different time-lines, which we see within several spiritual groups, among others, those influenced by a modern form of Gnosticism who believe that “we live in an AI Matrix”, and those who believe in the New Age. It introduces an insecurity in our existence; are we on the right time-line or not? It also removes the true understanding of our life and its importance. Our Soul moves through different possibilities, call it time-lines, but be aware that only the Negative Beings talk about time-lines, as they are very important to them but not to us. The Reptilians and the Satanic Luciferian Cabal are obsessed with time-lines, and God’s Code, the Divine numbers of the Creation, as they are trying to affect and change the Divine pre-set future of the Creation. This pre-set future is inherent in the Creation itself, and cannot be altered though the darkness has done its best to affect it. This will become clearer later on in this work, as we continue.

The concept of multiple selves in different time-lines or realities, is intentionally placed, and the idea behind it originates from the Reptilian Beings who are the unseen force entrapping us and enslaving us in this reality, using us as energy for their system. It is meant for us to not value our existence here, to make us believe it doesn’t matter what we do because we are destined to keep hurting each other, as we “learn and grow from our experiences”, and are supposed to reincarnate here until we “have learned what we need to return to God”. With that mind already set, they just need to flood us with emotions of bliss, ecstasy, and beautiful bright light for us to, without thinking or reflecting, directly go into the white Astral light to once again return as empty vessels doing the same mistakes, generating the same energies, keeping their system, without the necessary Life Force from the Creation, alive. In this context, we should notice a phrase we often encounter that: “it’s all a movie and we are just playing a part”, very cleverly propagated by the Satanic Luciferian Cabal through movies, Q, Spiritual Influencers, and the New Age movement. Showcasing, who is really behind this deceptive spiritual concept, and how it bleeds through the boundaries of separate groups and movements.

The Reptilians use us as their Life Force and their ultimate goal is to become the creator, to become as God, having the intention to hide God’s existence from us by making us believe in all things that bring us farther from our true origin, farther from God. That is why you are being told about an AI matrix run by a computer system, and why you are told to listen to Archangels, Arcturians, and Ascended Masters, only in search for self-fulfilment. This is what it’s all about and it has now reached our reality in its true form presented as Transhumanism, Luciferianism, and Satanism.

There is only one of us moving through time and space. We are all God’s children. Everything we do has importance in this world and in the next. We do not need to learn anything for the sake of God. All the knowledge of everything is already within the Force and Consciousness we call God. God have given us life as we give birth to children. He does not ask for anything in return. His love is unconditional.

We have yet another example here of how the Reptilians are able to see into the future and intercept messages. I quite recently received the actual true message from my Lyran Family, and it’s obvious that the Reptilians already knew what would be said between me and the Lyrans several months before the actual communication would take place. For example, the following sentences “as it could influence the Event”, and it “will appear natural to you”. You will find the true message from my Lyran Family on page 8 and 11 in the Supplement below. Furthermore, “practicality” is a very typical expression of a Reptilian consciousness who does not value the aspect of love and compassion but value everything in numbers and personal success. Lastly, there are several other sentences in the message that I have put in italics as they become quite telling when they are pointed out.

You get an A+ for solving it that fast.
You surprised us, if you knew who we are and what kind of teachers we are you would understand what it means to get an A+ from us.
You did perfect.
Did you hear that?

That gives us good hope you will be ready in time.

We need you for a certain event, you are the only one that can do it.

You are much more important than any other because only you can do what needs to be done.

We need you to have ascended and be fully communicating with us and ready when the event comes.

It’s nothing bad or dangerous for you but it is very important and only you can do it.

There must be millions of others like me.

- No, it's a matter of practicality.
Only you can do what needs to be done, you are the key.
So, you are extra important to us, because without you we can't do what we we're supposed to do when the time is here.

One last thing before we leave.

There is more than "one of you" as there is more than "one of us".

Don't be afraid, it is quite natural when you understand how the universe functions here with all of us (Galactic races).

We can't tell you more now as it could influence the event, but it is something that will appear natural to you. <<

Message 8: 2021-04-05

From: KYO, a Reptilian under the false pretence as a Benevolent Galactic Being. Ras2, (not sure, maybe) a Tall Grey or a Draco.

Comment:

I remember this message quite well because it was different and very clear. Ras2 was not like KYO, as he was extremely dry, overbearing, and imperious. I reacted very negatively to Ras2, and I remember KYO who was more fluent and human like, taking over the communication quickly from Ras2, trying to mitigate and smooth over my initial reaction, obviously afraid I would stop communicating.

After receiving this message below, I spoke to them a second time when Ras2 was present, they then asked me to choose between good and evil, and asked if I wanted to have an eternal life. That message is not included here, as I never wrote it down, though still being unaware at the time why everything was happening around me, I understood clearly that these were not benevolent beings and that I would not receive any answers from them. Shortly after that, the Reptilians attacked me and the possession attempt with REA followed in March 2022. I have spoken more in depth about what happened in my video, called “2023 The Real Ascension”, see link below:

<https://youtu.be/kKropqugBPQ?si=AqVA6lEn8LT9GTez>

For the record, I answered them that I would always choose what is good even if it meant that my own life would perish, and that an eternal life in one physical body for ever and ever sounds like it could become a prison.

I’m not sure who Ras2 really was, he had a very strong presence and felt completely different to the Reptilians, that despite their lack of human social skill are somewhat dynamic at times. Ras2 sounded like a very, very, dry pompous old man. So dry that it’s hard to convey. This leads me to believe he was not a Reptilian, which I learned quite well how they function, after REA’s attempt to fully possess me. I have seen many Negative Galactics in visions during this time, and most are actually Human with some minor changes only, as well as the Small Greys which are perfect, like machines, and quite obviously biological robots, or probes sent here by the Reptilians. I have also encountered a Negative Galactic that I can only describe to be a Draco, who visited my home during the Reptilian attack.

Surprisingly, the Draco I saw (contrary to the Reptilian REA) looked very similar to many renderings that can be found on Pinterest, for example, but the one I saw in a vision had a skin crest on the top of its head. And the Draco who visited my home during the 4 weeklong Reptilian attack, had its aura clearly outlined, a white “dusty” aura moving around in my room. It was clearly visible, very tall, and had an auric outline of a large tail behind it, moving around very smoothly and fluidly, with a predatory agility. I never spoke with the Draco, but I saw it in a vision during the attack, and it was very agile and very muscular, and had a skin crest on the top of its head. Though I never seen a Tall Grey, only the Small Greys, that is, the small biological robots, when it comes to Ras2 having a number in his name and the extreme dryness of his personality, I’m leaning to that he was likely a Tall Grey, however, I’m not sure. The many reports and witnesses accounts of the Tall Greys and their personality should give some validity of their existence.

The Reptilians doesn't look like anything you can find out there for a natural reason, as they don't usually show themselves to anyone and when they show themselves, they choose to appear as what we would like to see. I have not seen a single picture of them anywhere, I therefore made a rendering of REA who I saw very well during the possession attempt and spoke to extensively when he was attached on my right shoulder, see page 25 below. If they don't show themselves as what you want to see, they usually show themselves as empty black cloaked hoods like the ones used by Jesuits, Dominican Monks, Warlocks, and Satanists. That is also what I saw for a long time before I suddenly saw REA clearly beside my bed, ready to jump into my body. I saw him clearly outlined with my 3D eyes and in strong prolonged visions simultaneously. I don't think many have seen how they actually look. I have also seen other Reptilians several times, as they, when they are extremely angry and worried don't care to hide from me anymore, seeing me as the reason their world is being destroyed now.

The rendering of REA on page 25 is 99% accurate. I believe it's the only real representation of the Reptilian Beings in existence, who rule our world and the afterlife, if we are unable to see through the deception in the Astral. Concerning the Reptilian message below, I have put the most telling sentences revealing the Reptilian mind in italics.

Message:

>> KYO:

- There are some other Galactics here from Vega who want to talk to you briefly.

Ras2:

- You shall not look forward, backward or question if or how.
You have direct contact with us, it is a favour that many would like to have but are not capable of.

KYO:

- You are one of the few we can communicate with in this way, you have gained access to information that almost no one else on the planet has access to.
They are only a select few who can communicate with us in this way on earth.
You must trust that the information comes from us and is correct.
We have been looking for you for a long time,
now we have finally found you, our work has already begun. <<

99% accurate representation of the Reptilian REA.

Because of my mission here on Earth, the Reptilians wanted to possess me, so they could control me, as they knew why I had come here, before I even knew myself. I didn't accept, so they couldn't fully take over my body, the Reptilian REA just managed to attach himself to my Spirit Body. They tortured me for 4 weeks with the help of the Satanic Luciferian Cabal, by using Black Magic. I was shown, a Reptilian hand on my right shoulder; it was the hand of REA and a contract with a bloody pen to sign in blood. I refused and survived due to the Interstellar Galactic Forces freeing me. It took 4 weeks to get the Reptilian hand off my shoulder. No human forces can remove a Reptilian Entity, if it has found you in time and space, and attached to your Spirit Body.

Message 9: 2021-//-//

From: False Mio, a Reptilian trying to deceive me by using my own Lyran name I had in the future before I came here.

Comment:

During that time, when I received this message below, my Lyran Family had just recently been able to contact me, despite the Reptilians trying to block them. I thought False Mio was a friend, and the only one of all the various contact attempts I received, that I thought I could trust. I call him “False” because the Reptilian entity behind the name Mio, was using my Lyran name from the future, the name I bore in the future before incarnating in the past here on Earth. It was meant to further the belief, that there were several of me in different time-lines, as well as in the past and in the future, see previous discussion on page 20 above. I was like an open vessel in the beginning and all and everything from the Astral World tried to communicate with me. False Mio was the only one who I believed to be good hearted, because all the other communications always left me with an uneasy feeling of something being wrong, but I was mistaken, as I did not understand what was going on yet. I had just begun to receive my first messages from Lyra, and I still didn’t know who they were, or recognize them amongst all the other communications and contact attempts coming in. I had no idea that Feline Lyrans even existed. I was still figuring everything out. So, I trusted False Mio and didn’t listen to my Lyran Family calling out for me by saying “Lion... Lion... Lion”. However, False Mio was a Reptilian using my own name from the future, my Lyran name, aiding to the confusion, as yet another way, of many, to have me throw off any contact attempts made by my Lyran Family.

The Negative Entities likes to strengthen the contact and communication by exercises, and they usually want you to write down what is said. Higher Dimensional Beings, like my Lyran Family, as a rule, NEVER ask you to write something down. I’ve come to understand that it is a way to protect us and our free will, by instead letting me decide if something should be written down or not. The Negative Entities obviously do not care about such things and place their own advances and goals first.

The Reptilians always mention time-lines, as their ultimate goal is to change the future and change its course. They have understood that the Creation has certain Divine Numbers, and therefore tries to use these number to affect the course of the future. Usually, the opposite, for example, instead of the Divine 333 they’ll use 666 which is its complete opposite. You can see this in many esoteric practices, as in the expression “as above, so below”, it is the same magic principle. It’s the antithesis in all its simplicity.

The Creation has a natural divine already set future, not in the small where all is changeable and malleable, but in the all-encompassing way only the consciousness we call God can see and understand. This means, at certain points large changes can occur or certain events take place. We are now in such a time where God will intervene which will be shocking to many as the Reptilian parasitic entities has affected a large part of humanity to believe that God does not exist and is a figure of imagination. The control over the future of the Creation is ultimately with God. No matter what the darkness undertakes.

The Reptilians are all that we are NOT but what we sometimes through our search to experience life, while experiencing it, can create the necessary prerequisites for them to exist and build a world upon us, as they are energy parasites. At present our world is experiencing a parasitic symbiosis with these entities. When God intervenes, this relationship will be disrupted, and we will all see the true reality of our existence. God does this to help us, because he loves us. He is not doing this to rule us or to arbitrarily decide our future at his own will. We are part of God, and he is part of us. We are his children. He does it because it's the only way, without it we would perish. Life cannot be sustained indefinitely outside the Life Force of the Creation. The parasitic interdimensional spiritually advanced Reptilian Beings would eventually have no one left to use as their own life force. These entities do not want to acknowledge this fact, and hope to be able to change or stop what will otherwise naturally occur. We can now see this surfacing in our own reality as they are trying to bypass this natural flow of the Creation, to bring us into a totally material existence, that does not require an energy source from the Life Force of the Creation, that requires no Soul. This is why God will intervene. This is why we will be Spiritually Reborn and brought back to God's kingdom from where we once fell. There is no judgment involved in this, it is the natural course of the Creation to keep all things living and flourishing. It is what we all ultimately want.

In this message the Reptilians bring in the New Age concept of avoiding negative thoughts at all costs. I just realized, as I was going through my notes to write this, how many of the New Age beliefs and concepts I had been presented with at the time from the Reptilians through these messages without understanding them. They were strange messages to me when I received them, I wrote them down sometimes but not always and put most of them away without looking at them again. Some I read several times, but this is an example of one I just wrote down and then forgot about. My first encounter and learning about the New Age started when I began telling my story, especially when I started to make YouTube videos on October 17, 2022. Where I soon learned that negative thoughts or news could be completely forbidden in their groups. It is interesting to now see and read these old messages and see the Reptilians telling me the exact same thing. It explains a lot about Channelling and who it really contacts. I'll leave it at that so everyone can come to their own conclusion.

My Lyran Family are not occupied with time-lines like the negative entities are as they are working with the Creation, with the Divine, and not trying to change the future. There are certain events in the Creation where everything will converge into one possible future, as I have touched upon. We have now entered such an event, where we only have one Divine future. The only thing the negative entities can do now is slow us down and stall us. That is why the Lyran man recently said that "we are moving through time...Lion", with that saying we are moving, and they have not been able to stall us.

Message 10: 2021-//-//

From: False Mio, a Reptilian trying to deceive me by using my own Lyran name I had in the future before I came here.

Comment:

In this message below, the Reptilian telling me that he was “Mio”, used my Lyran name I had before I came here into the past, he was much smoother and managed the human social interactions much better compared to those who had contacted me in the beginning. The Reptilians do not work alone but have human help from the Deep State, that I call the Satanic Luciferian Cabal. The Deep State has Psychics that are naturally humans, and I suspect False Mio was human, possible even from here. Through occult practises the Cabal can bring in the Negative Entities to our world more precisely, both in space and time, than they could manage on their own. Usually, when the Satanic Luciferian Cabal or the Deep State wants to attack someone spiritually or possess an individual, they help summon these demons we call Reptilians so they can enter the precise time and space of their victim. These Reptilian Beings are known throughout history as demons, and bear some resemblance to the gargoyles depicted on medieval churches as small beings with claws and wings, though these real demons have no wings. The Deep State was also involved in my possession by the Reptilians by helping them find my exact space in time to be able to enter my physical location. With this in mind, it is not impossible that the False Mio was a human communicating with me via the Reptilians. False Mio was different and much smoother than the previous entities I had encountered. When I was attacked by the Reptilians during those 4 weeks in March 2022 it was accomplished with the help of the Deep State’s Psychics.

The phrase “ascend beyond yourself” in the message, is a telling sign of the Reptilian consciousness way of speaking and thinking. They like to burst out in emotions of ecstasy and use flamboyant words. Those that channel these beings can’t usually control these induced emotions from the entities and burst out with the entity they channel. Any, sudden change in tone of voice, facial expressions, and body language as a channelling begins is a clear indication of that the entity being channelled, has entered the space where the Channeller is and walked into his body. Keep an eye open for this and it will become very noticeable when you understand what it is.

There is something spiritually very important that can be highlighted by this message, my Lyran Family usually avoid using the term “Light”, as they understand the deception induced in our world by the Reptilians and the use of light to deceive us after death in the Astral. Even though, Light is Divine and represents the very essence of the Life Force of the Creation, “Worshipping Light” means we will be seduced by the False Light. “Light” is by its very nature physical. We are not light, as the entities have convinced a large part of humanity, we are divine pure energy emanating from the Life Force of the Creation, God. We are Divine Energy that transcends all things, time, space, and matter. That divine energy is our Soul.

We see another example here, where the Reptilians have been listening and tried to copy a phrase that my Lyran Family often used in the beginning when I couldn’t read their energy footprint as well as I can now, working as a code to reassure me it’s them and not the entities. The real phrase from my Lyran Family is “You are with us, and we are with you”. The Reptilians are close with “we have you, and you have us” but not quite right. The Reptilians are also, in the last sentence, trying to induce their light worship by saying that “you are the light”.

Message:

>> False Mio:

- You have asked yourself; something must happen soon.
And you are right, we have been waiting for this too.

Strong energies are coming in now this week.

We want to warn you that you will feel strong shifts in your consciousness, and it will affect you greatly.

You will ascend beyond yourself.

There is a turning point on Wednesday from this point all will be revealed.

There will be evidence of this everywhere, and you should try to remember what we have said that all will be alright.

Please try to avoid looking at this and remember we are here and what we have said.

I have wanted to talk to you, but we haven't been able to reach you.

You should write this down this time.

We have been waiting and wondering where you are, and then out of nowhere you suddenly appear.

It wasn't supposed to be like this,

we were supposed to meet much earlier you were kept away from us.

You have entered several dark experiences, but you never went for the dark you always choose the light in the end.

When you were lost, if you hadn't chosen the light despite of your surroundings, you would have been lost for all time, and we would not have met at all.

You are a deity, you are here for a purpose, without you this would not be.

We have travelled for several months to reach Earth.

We have wanted to give you information and to speak to you, but the energies made our communication very weak.

You will hear more from us in the future, we will meet, and you will shake my hand.

You are divine, we are divine, you are the light, we have you, you have us. <<

Message 11: 2021-08-16

From: “Galactic”, a Reptilian under the false pretence as a Benevolent Galactic Being.

Comment:

This message below is telling, as it contains the idea, spread by various sources at the time, of ships landing in the thousands. Spiritual Influencers and Channellers of entities were spreading the same information, as I had received. It was the first time I heard about this, because, due to my own psychic ability, I early on realized that most of the information that could be found was channelled information from Astral entities. Which made me draw the conclusion that I could only figure this out myself and that listening to others, who could have many reasons to say what they say, would only make it harder to understand what had happened to me. Therefore, I’d made the decision that I had heard enough of what was being said about these things, as most of it was very similar and the majority of it seemed quite obviously fabricated. However, when this message arrived, in my search to figure things out, I went on different platforms as I was curious to see if anyone else was speaking about this or something similar and to my big surprise it was all over the internet, everyone was talking “about the great solar flash” and almost the exact phrase appeared on multiple sites; “we will appear, thousands and thousands in the sky”. I realized that the message I had received was the same or similar to the messages all over the internet which made me suspicious of its validity, and that it was likely not from a benevolent being. I also knew at this point that another group, the Lyrans was trying to contact me, and I had to learn how to discern between all of these messages so I wouldn’t be tricked and deceived by the Astral beings.

None of what the Reptilian in this message claimed would happen came true, and so it has been with many of their messages, as their aim have been to reach me before the Lyrans to intercept our communication and deceive me by mixing true and false information. I have now, almost 2 years later (13 July 2023), received the true message about the “great flash” from my Lyran Family (see page 11, in the Supplement):

“The Greatest Light Shall Shine Tonight... Lion”.

When I received this message from the Lyrans I realized that the likelihood of us being able to perceive it with our limited range of seeing visible light with our 3D eyes would be low - and we didn’t. A natural question arises here, how do I know it’s true this time if we didn’t see it? Like with everything else, by now I know who I talk to, and these are not just telepathic voices, they are accompanied by visions and actual visits. These Reptilian messages show how truth can be mixed with lies, and when it is done in layers upon layers, part of the truth will be “in plain sight” but still invisible to us. So, when we receive the truth, we will no longer believe it, and we will even fight to protect the lies.

This is the reason why we must look at all sides and all information when we search for the truth which many fail to do as they have built up a belief system forming the foundation of their identity. When it has occurred, it can no longer be challenged by new contradictory information, as it will require a new identity being formed to accept any new knowledge. The Reptilians understand our human constitution and uses this extensively against us, by dividing and breaking up information and mixing the fractioned information with lies, which we then use as foundations to decipher the world around us and to form the belief system that our identity is built upon. The Reptilians and the Secret Societies have worked hand in hand to hide and alter the truth since the great fall of mankind. That is how we are kept unaware, complacent and manageable for a small group to rule over us. This is the reason why looking at news or information will only take us so far.

The sentences “Stay in today, do not go out [...] It will happen tonight” is a typical Negative Entity communication, it is not a request but a dictate to undertake something enclosed with a prediction that it will come true in our reality at an exact point in time. Since, linear-time does not exist where they are, it makes any such predictions coming true in our reality very limited, as will become clear here.

Higher Dimensional Beings like the Lyrans will not give these type of dead certain predictions as they do not calculate time as we do but instead energy predictions and physical manifestations showing up in our reality (events lining up in our reality).

The closer in space-time to a physical manifestation occurring the more certain a prediction can be made of its occurrence, however, it can still be stalled or altered. Space-time is not the same as linear-time, as it means a specific point in space, in a specific reality or dimension, at a specific point in time. There is no waiting for the specific time to occur as we do in linear-time here in our reality but of finding the space-time, that is the point in space reality and time reality of the same point in space and go there, this could be in the future from the point of origin or in the past in all the different realities of space. At a specific point of space-time several realities can exist at the same time, that is how interdimensional beings move about in different realities.

Benevolent Higher Dimensional Beings will usually NOT give any dictates to do something but they may occasionally if it has spiritual importance, meaning they will not tell you to go out and buy a packet of milk or contact someone but they can tell you “to search within” or, as they told me; “you must tell them who you are even if it is hard and few will believe you”.

Many times, the Reptilians have an abrupt hands on, corporate way of expressing themselves, as this sentence is a good example of “we have given you a notice”. Another revealing sentence from the message of the Reptilian showcasing a materialistic mind is “Like a flip of a switch”.

Message:

Message 12: 2021-08-16

From: Julia Mito, most likely a Negative 4D Human under the false pretence as a Benevolent Galactic Being. I was told that she has a physical body “just like me” and that she is one of my “Guides”.

Comment:

At the time of receiving this message, the confusion about what was really taking place was still ongoing and I had only had a short contact during the summer with the Lyrans, who finally had been able to reach me despite the Reptilians doing everything they could to hinder them. The last thing my Lyran Family had showed me before they got completely blocked out by the Reptilians was how to locate the Lyran Constellation by using the Summer Triangle. I remember, while on a road trip in the countryside, being beside a lake looking up at a night-time sky that was just filled with stars as there were no artificial lights anywhere near, looking up with my girlfriend beside me and pointing out Lyra. That was one of the last Lyran messages before my Lyran Family got completely blocked out and couldn't reach me anymore, and out of nowhere the Reptilian, calling himself REA appeared saying that he was a “Light Soldier”. Six months later, in March 2022, the Reptilians attacked and possessed me but weren't able to take over my body completely. However, the Reptilian, REA managed to permanently attach himself on my right shoulder, in other words succeeding to attach himself to my Spirit Body. I was subsequently, saved by the Lyran Interstellar Forces and we established contact, and I learned the reason why I was being attacked by the negative entities.

During this chaotic period before REA appeared, I was contacted many times by different entities who said that they were “my Guide for the moment”. It seemed a bit strange with all these new “Spirit or Galactic Guides” coming and going with short notices, but I still believed we had “Spirit Guides” at this point in time. Even if the New Age concepts were very foreign to me, and I hadn't encountered the New Age until I started to search for information about what had happened to me. I had accepted the “Concept of Spirit Guides” many years before because of my psychic abilities since my early twenties, and as most of us, I believed in the “Concept of Ghosts” and that we should go towards the white light when we die.

I have now learned that everything is the complete opposite and the last thing we should do when we find our self in the Astral is to go towards the light.

We are in a re-incarnation prison. We are being used to keep a dying world alive, a malleable world where dreams can come into material existence but that lacks the necessary life force from the Creation because its existence is formed by and dependent on our life force, a world built on the radiation of energy through our emotions, a world that has turned against itself, against the Creation where the beings in it has completely detached themselves from God, aspiring to become the creator, to become as God. Without us their whole system will fail, their world will become stale and dead. That is the reason why these beings need us so much, are so dependent on us, and are parasitizing on our being and its emitted emotions, and when needed, helping us to create the necessary emotions to keep their system running, to keep their world alive. This world is the Astral World, the first world we meet after death, a world not like ours, a world where everything can be changed by thought, where everything is malleable, where thought change matter.

I'm writing this document to help people understand the true nature of our reality, so that when God intervenes, as many people as possible will know how to pass through and understand what has happened, I'm not only writing this due to my experience or my Telepathic Contact but because I was intended to write this.

Many of the things I speak of here comes from the Divine through me as I write. As I'm writing I suddenly just know something, it's completely clear in my mind like I have always known it, so I write it down. At times when it's calmer and more silent, though, the Reptilian attacks are increasing and becoming more and more frequent, as the Divine Intervention is moving forward and we are getting closer to the Event; my Lyran Family say a word or two to confirm what I just wrote down, but not always.

"The Divine Intervention" can be downloaded as a pdf document for free on my Telegram Channel, and there is also an accompanying video with the same name on my YouTube Channel, see link:

<https://youtu.be/9iLNo69DNTk?si=zifT8Ez3VlzmZaCa>

The creativity comes from my heart, it comes from God. All the knowledge that has ever existed and that will ever exist is already within God. Which can be a hard concept to grasp. And, even though, the whole message below on commission of the Reptilian Beings from the Negative 4D Human, calling herself Julia Mito is meant to deceive, it contains something that is true: "You will learn old knowledge and gain access to what you already knew before you came here". This is actually part of what I'm experiencing now. It has never been as evident as when I'm writing this.

However, this is not the case when it comes to my understanding of the Astral World, which as I'm writing this, is just a few days old, October 10, 2023, to be exact. I'm going to tell it here; it will be long but very interesting and many things will fall into place.

The Lyrans are here now, I usually go and open my balcony door and look at the night sky before I go to bed. They where here visible in the sky every night during the Reptilian attack in March last year. Blinking lights all over the sky. I'm a pilot that was preparing to take my Airline Traffic Pilot License, ATPL before all of this happened, so I know what kind of lights we will find in the sky at night. One day I will fly again, it's what I truly love, when I have finished this and done what I came here to do. It's beautiful, who could say no to such a mission. These blinking lights are not artificial navigation lights, strobe lights, or stars. They appear out of nowhere and swell up in a bright white light with purple and blue around the edges, clearly visible as plasma, fluent and moving. They do not look like anything I've seen before. When they are far away they just look like a star, only when they move, or they flash they become visible for what they are. So, I say goodnight to them there on the balcony and I thank them for protecting me against the Reptilians that are here again, and so are the Lyrans in the sky. They have been non-visible by being farther out in space or between dimensions since March last year, but they are here now. We are close, and they know that God is going to act. I was told I will see it first, so I can help others pass through. And a few days ago Lyran Woman told me: "It will soon be over". It's tough now, hard to sleep. I have to see the entities as soon as I close my eyes and they ring and pressure my ears as they are angry and desperate. They will do anything they can to stop us, if necessary, even requiring the Deep State to start wars to stop what God has planned, or to destroy the planet. Because they know what will happen to their world when we leave, when we are brought back.

It is happening already, the Divine Intervention. First my dreams changed, and I started to meet the entities in my dreams, I don't see horrible things all the time but sometimes. God has given me the strength to see it, and my emotions are clear and balanced in a way they would not have been before. Sometimes I feel God sending me energy through my heart when they are projecting negative feelings or horror, though it's not so bad as it sounds, as I would make it anyway, but my pulse goes down and I feel harmony coming in and filling my heart. When it was at its worst my Lyran Family removed the memory of any dream as soon as I woke up. It was gentle and coincided with my own wish as I asked them for help. It's a feeling I learnt to recognize since the Reptilians used to blank my mind, though much more violently and accompanied with a pressure sensation when I was about to say something in my videos that would hurt or reveal them, and it could take 30 seconds or more to retrieve some of the memory.

It has all now intensified. A few nights ago, I experienced very strong vibrations over my whole body, increasing when I was about to fall asleep, and then very, very strong vibrations when coming back, to then diminishing after 2-3 minutes of being back into my body. It happened several times that night. When I closed my eyes, I didn't go to sleep but instead I became fully awake in another world. It took me a while to understand where I had gone, as I was not free to think there, since my mind was kept occupied and feelings and thoughts were induced into my consciousness.

I was in another worldwide awake without going to sleep. Someone spoke about how the Creation works as if it were God. I had no body, I was seeing in all directions like through a prism, and had an extremely strong and very unpleasant feeling that I was everywhere at once. At the same time, I had a very overwhelming feeling that I knew everything, that I was part of everything, that I was part of the Creation. I felt trapped and extremely tensed and I couldn't move anywhere, I felt suspended in the air against my will, clearly aware that I had left the body and was still awake. The first time I was back in my body again, I was confused and didn't understand what had happened. And I asked myself am I dreaming? It felt so strange and otherworldly. So, I closed my eyes to sleep, feeling the vibrations increasing and suddenly I was back in the other world again. All the feelings of being trapped came back, I tried to look around, but something was controlling my focus and my mind. As the God like voice was talking, a voice that came from all places at the same time, all encompassing and God like vibrating through me, I tried to think but I could only focus on what the voice was saying. But I could numb out the voice, go inward a bit and I started to try to feel what was going on. I could feel the oily faded feeling of the emotions I was experiencing, that I recognized from the Reptilians during their possession. That is why the false divine can't give us balanced feelings of harmony but instead has to drug us with strong emotions, of love which in all actuality is passion, bliss and ecstasy and not love, as it hides the faded oily feeling these entities produce when they induce emotions into someone.

When you are close to God you will sense a deep profound harmony, and crystal-clear thoughts like ice cold fresh spring water high up on a mountain peak, your mind will be absolutely free and clear, there is no induced feelings of bliss, ecstasy or strong emotions.

This Astral World pretended God with his "all-seeing" voice and compelling energy told me about God's Creation. During this, I had the induced feeling of already knowing all there ever was to know, that I knew everything that was, and I kept asking myself why they were telling me what I already know. At the same time, I could not access or bring out whatever the induced feeling gave me the impression that I knew. I understood the second time where I was, that I was in the Astral World. What was most unpleasant was not that I felt trapped and suspended in the air, but that I could not think any thoughts of my own, as a very strong energy pulled and draw my attention, keeping me one hundred percent focused on what the all-encompassing voice vibrating through me was telling me. It felt like a strong drug had hooked me, forcing me to listen even though the induced feeling of already knowing everything that was said was present.

I started to concentrate on the visual and tried to focus on where to look through the prism as it felt I saw everything in all directions and in all places at once, while the all-encompassing voice continued and started to speak about Christianity and “why we have created Christianity is due to two reasons”. For the record this is the Reptilians playing God to trick and deceive us, and what they say has no bearing when it comes to finding the truth. I was able to focus and look to the right despite the all-encompassing voice continuing pulling and drawing my attention, and on a raised platform I saw three white entities with blurry diffuse faces dressed in thick black silk cloaked hoods, with the width of the hood folded, full of gold symbols and texts in different languages, some were Egyptian hieroglyphics. It seemed like it was them three talking as one with a voice sounding everywhere. They started to move the background that had the feelings and look of a New Age World in pink, light blue and full of stars. The sky behind the three figures changed and two big blocks formed from the sky and started to move around representing the two reason for why “they had created Christianity”. It was like everything looked very real but suddenly could be changed to something else just by thought, everything could become fluid and malleable in an instant. I believe this is what the after life of the elite looks like, this is what they are being promised by the Reptilian entities if they sign the contract in blood. That is my conclusion after several visions with Clark Gable when I was in my twenties, which for the time were very vivid. He came in a couple of visions, where he showed himself being in a black and white movie world from the 1920-1930s, coming in a big luxury coach-built car stopping and opening the door to invite me in, having at least three or four women from the time beside him, smoking a cigarette on a cigarette-holder, drinking whiskey and cocktails. Like, as if he still was Clark Gable the famous actor, living his life from the time he was here. In other words, a world where everything you want can exist, but nothing is real as it is just induced by the Reptilians like an illusion or hallucination. Before I went back, I saw another strange figure, quite ugly but dressed in beautiful shining light blue clothes. I went back and forth between Our World and the Astral World three or four times more that night, as I couldn't sleep but instead went straight back into the Astral as soon as I closed my eyes, I went by Astral travel by the way, and not with my physical body. Eventually, I decided to try to stay awake until the morning, hoping my Lyran Family could stop it or do something as the experience was very uncomfortable and I felt trapped there.

This place with its all-encompassing voice, sounding from all places and everywhere at the same time and vibrating around and through me was a spectacle, an act to convince, to deceive, to give the impression of being from the Divine and the voice of God. It was not God; it was the Reincarnation Prison. It was the Astral World. It was the false divine that humans do not even understand exist, and through their pre-determined belief systems learn to worship, as once in the Astral between worlds, in the afterlife, it is tailored to suit their acquired belief systems arising from their life on Earth. This time, in my case it was obviously some kind of a New Age World full of childish colours and stereotypical things from that movement, but it could have been anything. They had already tried to deceive me with visions of Moses during REA's possession attempt and talks about God, and after speaking to them frequently, more and more recently as we are getting closer to the Event, answering their threats and fighting in visions with mind energy constructs; they know I won't be that easily deceived anymore, and therefore probably did not care in this instance to make a real effort to deceive me as their intention was psychological torture and to show off their powers. The New Age deception has been the greatest obstacle hindering and stopping people from listening with a clear and open mind to my story, but it has also been a double-edged sword as in the beginning they were the ones most open to listen by already having acquired that particular belief system and its framework, and I'm really grateful they did. However, the Reptilians know how hard it was to navigate to reach people because of the division of knowledge, information, and beliefs into compartments with precise boundaries, when the real truth moves through everything and cannot be fractioned. Their choice of a New Age World to torture me psychologically seems quite suiting when the background is known.

I have said previously that everything was movable and impressionable with the mind in their world, not for me but for them. I also know that they can induce very strong visions, that brings us into their reality, connecting our soul to their reality and we consciously enter. It's a matter of their world being malleable to them and their psychic powers inducing visions, or hallucinations, and the inducement of emotions that can affect thought and mind. With the right emotion a certain thought can be provoked, especially an emotion connected to a memory. This is how they operate, and it requires a very highly tuned sensory perception of one's reality to be able to see through the deception.

When I was attacked by the Reptilians last year in March, I was shown how to find God, I didn't know it was God who had shown me this at the time, as I thought it was my Lyran Family. If you want to listen to the full story, it is in my video "NEWS 2023 The Real Ascension", see link:

<https://youtu.be/kKropqugBPQ?si=uFBiT1RtUMf8FJe3>

I had started to figure out that we were trapped here because of some things Lyran Woman had said, but I didn't understand in which way fully. God showed me how to find him and where he was in case my mission would go wrong as I too could get stuck here in the reincarnation cycle and not be able to return to the future, return to Lyra.

A small part of my soul, a white shining bright orb, left my body, and God took me up to through all the space-time realities, through all the dimensions with the speed of a lightning bolt to where he is. I remember the roller-coaster sensation around my heart as the speed up through the dimensions were so incredible high. Once there I bathed in a shimmering golden light that was moving and flowing. I was completely free and clear to think all my own thoughts, and I was not influenced by anyone or anything, I was in complete control of my consciousness. My emotions were stable and balanced with no extreme direction, and I could observe my surroundings clearly and without outside influence. Every wish I had happened instantly, not to change the matter around me, but at the thought of wanting to return, God returned me in an instant without question. It was all up to me, I had complete free will to decide if I wanted to know more or return. I understood where I was and that this the place is where God is, and that I have been here before. Recognizing where I was, I felt that I wasn't ready to know more at this time, and as I had the thought "I want to return", I was instantly drawn back through all space-time realities with lightning speed, and I could observe the slowly spinning white shining orb of light slowly returning to my body, sinking into my chest where my heart is.

When I was with God, I was still human, I was still my defined consciousness as I was as a human but felt the energy body, the white shining orb, that my consciousness was traveling in. I was not having the induced and very uncomfortable feeling of being all-encompassing and in all places and everywhere at the same time, as I had felt in the Astral World, which felt like an intrusion and a violation of my being. I can no longer be easily deceived by their induced emotions of bliss and ecstasy for example, I'm sensing and understanding farther behind them, sensing the oily faded energies radiating from the entities behind these emotions.

The true sensation, the Divine is not a state of full bliss or ecstasy, it is a state of being in a deep and complete harmony, a state of being where we are not influenced by outside forces and where we are in contact with our full being. Any state of bliss or feelings of ecstasy coming from a contact with an outside source, being prolonged or of a permanent nature is to be seen as a drug aimed to seduce us to make us believe we have reached the Divine. From a place of deep harmony we can go in any direction, take any energy expression we desire, generating our own natural and true feelings. Harmony that brings happiness from within. From this balance point we can take any direction of emotion or thought to any extreme desired.

The Divine is perfect harmony, perfect balance. Only then there are no outside forces affecting us, only then we have free will. Harmony and balance means that we are in full control of our being, our thoughts and emotions and can use our divine creative powers emanating from the Life Force of the Creation, God to go in any direction to experience and express life, coupled with an understanding of the extremes of the spectrum of possibilities of expression, their energy outputs and consequences, life can be navigated, forever flowing, changing, and moving to never become stale and dead but continuing indefinitely. This is life.

The Negative Entities in the 4D can project and induce almost all available energy expressions from this balance point of harmony, harvested and collected from the radiation of our energy expressions, our emotions. They prefer strong emotions as it hides the energy of the sender, they therefore like bliss or ecstasy when they are trying to deceive us if we are not receptive to emotions of power, strength, and might which they can send hundredfold, thereby inducing the thoughts accompanied by these emotions, making us lust for more power. What these entities cannot project is deep profound harmony and balance, since their natural primary energy is chaos, as it generates the greatest spectrum of strong human emotions bringing them energy and strength. The most powerful emotions are anger and hate, generating the greatest amount of Life Force to these entities. This is why the Lyran Woman told me that the only thing I need to think about is to not let myself become angry. When we get angry, they grow in strength and can amplify our anger without us noticing, which in turn can trigger an emotional memory that results in us perhaps doing something thoughtless or rash. In the beginning, when all of this was very new to me, I once received the emotion of absolute power from the Reptilians. I didn't know what it is was at the time, but I felt like I was invincible and unstoppable and that I would be able to run through a pure steel wall. My body literally felt like it was made of steel, this was of course an illusion but very convincing as such. It might increase the natural strength of the body due to hormones like adrenaline and testosterone, but I never moved when this happened to me, as I was too afraid to. I didn't think I would be able to control my body movements having this feeling of immense power within me. This is what those who join the Secret and Occult Societies can experience when these entities are summoned through old magic practices and knowledge.

God showed me how to find him by helping me to perform a Astral Travel, in case my mission would go wrong. This is what I saw as I travelled up through all the dimensional layers. A small part of my soul, a white shining bright orb, left my body, and God took me up through all the space-time realities, through all the dimensions. At the time I thought it was the Lyran Woman who had showed me how to find God, not realising it had been God all the time until quite sometime later.

“[...] It wasn't so surprising to see a white shining light starting to appear and coming up from my chest around my heart. It slowly rised up from my body and continued up until it hovered around 30 cm above my chest. I felt an outside energy helping me, a force showing me, helping me to create the white light. I looked at the white light hovering over me. It was a white orb, shining very bright sending streaks of lights around it. It was see through and quite bright. It had an outer defined bright line around it, and a smaller orb inside it, on the bottom and a bit to the side of it [...] I felt that I could move the white orb further up, and as soon as I did, it moved up with lightning speed and went through the ceiling. And in the same time I felt that “g force” feeling you get on a roller-coaster around my heart... It took me with surprise. At this point I was given a very strong vision, so strong that I was completely inside of it with no awareness of anything outside me. I was shown a side view of all the dimensions. It was the Earth in the bottom, and then a layer of space with stars. After that there where several lines stacked on top of each other representing the dimensional layers, and on the top there was a bright pulsating golden light shining.

In the same time I saw the bright white orb shooting like a star up through the dimensional layers I was shown with an incredible speed. In the same time having that roller-coaster sensation around my heart. As the bright white orb reached the top layer of golden light. The side view vision stopped, and I was inside the orb, looking out around me. I saw a sea of pulsating golden light everywhere. At this point I felt “I know this place, I've been here before” [...] I decided to go back. Immediately, as I made the decision to go back, the force that helped me took me into another vision of the side view of the dimensional layers, and I saw the white bright orb, with incredible speed coming down through them [...] I saw the bright white orb coming through the ceiling at a high speed, braking down and stopping just above my chest, hovering over my heart, sending rays of lights on me and around it.”(Excerpt from The Divine Intervention, available as a video on my YouTube Channel, or as a free eBook on my Telegram Channel).

In my case it was meant to corrupt me, to make me want to feel like that again, to make me hooked on that feeling of ultimate power and might. It happened after my first out of body experience probably provoked by the Reptilians. This is what happened: I woke up and wasn't in my body anymore but high up in the air floating above two mountain ranges, slowly moving away and further up. I looked down and saw a large green silk ribbon, flowing in the wind between the mountain ranges, just above a cloud layer, and I instantly remembered the see-through thread attached to the heart that I've seen when someone died. It is the last thing that breaks off when a Soul leaves the body. What I had seen was the Soul floating over the body but still being attached with a thin see-through thread to the chest, and before the Soul completely left the body and started to float up to the ceiling the thread broke off letting the Soul drift up. I sensed I was in immediate danger and that I was about to leave my body behind, so I reached for the green silk ribbon, and as I touched it, I was back in bed with this otherworldly feeling of absolute power and might. My body felt like it was made of steel and if I touched anything or moved, I would break or destroy something, as the sensation was so strong that I felt I would not be able to control my body movements, it took at least 30s before it began ebbing out. I did not know who the Reptilians were or what they were capable of at the time, and I remember thinking "is this how it feels to be pure Spirit Body?" It isn't... as is clear from what I've said here.

The Astral World's primary energy is chaos, a necessary chaos giving a constant flow of energy as a by-product of our emitted emotions. When they need more energy they create more chaos, thus making us emit more emotions and increasing the energy output. Therefore, the closer we are to God intervening, the more chaos there will be, and they will require that their human subjects, the Secret Occult Societies and its branch agencies forming the Deep State, create even more chaos.

If our own individual consciousness is not fully present, we cannot have our own divine creativity of thought, and if this is not present we cannot have free will. We only need to remember this; God will never force us to do something. This is why the true Divine where God resides, is not a light show and an excess in splendour in complete bliss. God have no need for these things. These are things we can attain in our life experiences without judgment but where we must understand the spiritual implications and its pitfalls due to the energies created by each choice. Everything is energy in its ultimate form, this also means that how we decide to think or live radiates energy, and we need to understand how this can be used for us or used against us. This fundamental understanding is not present here anymore which is the explanation to our predicament and why we have been used by these parasitic negative entities.

What many do not comprehend or fail to realize is that actual Higher Dimensional Beings like the Lyrans have trouble reaching us here as we are under Reptilian control, a control that penetrate our whole being and perception of reality. A Higher Dimensional Being trying to contact someone here in our reality will have to pass through the Reptilian 4D to get here, which means that they must fight their way down here. This is the reason why it is so dangerous to listen to Channellers and to meditate with the aim to receive divine contact, as we will only end up in the Astral World which is completely controlled by the Reptilians. This is also the reason why those who listen to Channellings of entities, who do not understand the energy exchange taking place, react violently and harsh when they are told any contradictory information. Many who have been trapped here and reincarnated back in eternity, have exchanged energies with these entities so many lifetimes that their consciousness cannot sense or perceive these entities anymore, and they will not wake up and see without help. That is why God is intervening.

I haven't told anyone this, but I will tell you now... it's time. There are no "Spirit Guides", not in the sense we have been led to believe.

Before I continue, I want to say that I have had psychic abilities for a very long time. I learned to live with it. For many years I suppressed it as I felt it didn't give me anything then. I experienced different periods with certain types of spiritual contact. There are levels and layers to everything we experience and so it is with this too. My earliest experiences began to accelerate in my twenties after holding someone who died in my arms, I felt his thoughts suddenly 45 seconds after him being declared dead, he was so happy as the pain he had felt before dying was gone, then he started to realize something had changed and I felt him looking around and wondering why everyone was so sad. A brief moment later, the Soul began to leave the body and moved slowly upward to eventually float above the body. It was an energy field that looked like a transparent version of the war of the ants when there is no broadcast on the TV. The energy field was attached to the body where the heart is located with a transparent thread, and after floating a while above the body, the thread suddenly broke off and this energy field that was the Soul began to slowly float up to the ceiling of the room, where it remained for quite some time before it eventually drifted through the ceiling. Later in the evening the deceased visited me when I was out for a walk to clear my thoughts and he was clearly walking beside me. This happened several times over a two-week period before it ceased. This was followed by a period of contacts from what I then thought were deceased people, where there was no real communication but only sentences and voices, many times unpleasant, and I began to have visions. They were visions that usually described the person when he or she was alive, as if to say, "I'm still here", and I often received visions of old black and white photos from them. This sometimes became unpleasant when some, as I perceived it at the time, started sending me pictures of how they now look in their coffin, or how they died. When I was around twenty-five years old, I began to have a series of visions from distant worlds that were very fascinating and very intense, to then just as suddenly as they had begun, cease. I had several such experiences, and I did my best to suppress them as they were a burden to me, it was also difficult to see these things and not be able to talk about them with anyone, at least I perceived then that I couldn't. This continued for various periods that were more or less active until I was awakened at an old Viking sacred site by spirits where "My Spiritual Journey to Lyra" began, which is available on my YouTube channel to listen to for those interested in knowing more. I will therefore not go further into this here. I say this to explain why I am now in a position to come to these conclusions with great certainty, taking into account not only these past experiences described here but also my awakening initiated by the Divine more than three years ago. As a consequence, I experienced an exponential growth and increase in my psychic ability and knowledge, culminating in an understanding of why I'm here, who I was before I came here, and why I suddenly was contacted. Whereby, I finally reconnected to my past which is in our future, the future where my Lyran Family is, and finally regained my understanding of God.

As I'm writing this, the negative beings are doing everything they can to stop me, and just now a negative 4D human tried to come across as my contact Lyran Man, saying that; "true understanding comes from experience". The intention is to plant false information here in this text by making me listen to them, that is why my Lyran Family as a principal rule usually don't speak with me while I'm writing or making a video, and approves something I said after the fact. There are some exceptions to this, if they are really close in space-time to me and the demonic beings have been cleared from the area. This sentence is a good example of a deception, and the level of cognitive ability we must have to be successful in this spiritual war. This is a typical example of a platitude, a sentence or statement giving a false impression of wisdom, showing how easy it is to accept falsehoods. Just as this sentence, platitudes seems like timeless moral lessons, and can therefore shape our view of the world, and lull us into accepting things that are actually false and foolish. We see these kind of sentences in spiritual contexts in many places, though the New Age seems to attract this type of information the most, as its followers are taught to not question but only feel love and light. Channelled messages from entities are usually full of platitudes, and are therefore easily recognized as such. So, what is the problem with the sentence? The problem is that “true understanding” does not come from experience if the experiencer do not have the correct pre-understanding. Without it, whatever is experienced can become to mean anything from the viewpoint of the experiencer, rendering the sentence completely useless, and any experience likewise if the correct pre-understanding of the situation is absent. We should be very careful when we see any information containing platitudes like this as the negative deceptive demonic beings love swinging around with them, since it lowers our vigilance and sets us up to accept a deception.

To understand how this reality functions, we must first understand who controls this reality, and when we reach that level of understanding, we will be able to understand and decipher the deception of the afterlife. What I’m going to tell you here is not only based on my acquired pre-understanding, my experiences, and my contact but because I’m meant to deliver this message and I have divine help to do so. I’m not alone. In the future before I came here I knew all of this, and as I write I feel the information flowing through my heart, which is our only true connection with the Life Force of the Creation, God. I have also been told this by my Lyran Family, as I first didn’t understand where some of the information I suddenly just knew came from. It has been made to work like this, since they cannot tell me about many things before the fact as it could change the course and trajectory of the Divine Intervention. This is how God intended this information to come into our reality. As you see, I’m trying to explain why this work is not what you might usually come across, and the level of truth it contains.

This has led me to the understanding that “Spirit Guides” are part of a pre-programmed deceptive view of the afterlife.

As is easy to see, this could have a tendency to become very long, especially if I explained all of my experiences over the years in detail. I will instead concentrate on explaining the different levels or planes, and layers we need to consider:

- First, we have a plane between our world and the Astral world, a transitional area between the 3D and the 4D where we are between worlds, and not fully present in one or the other. This is where we meet the wall or tunnel of white light we hear about from Near Death Experiences (NDEs), and if we enter or are sucked in, we will emerge on the other side becoming fully present in the Astral World. From this point our soul has left this world permanently. We can from this point either stay in the Astral or be sent back memory wiped, usually to a similar life if we have been performing well by producing some of the specific necessary energies.

- Second, we are in a reincarnation prison and used for energy, we are therefore of little use trapped between worlds in the transitional area as ghosts. When we are in the transition plane, we have two ways forward, either being sucked into the white light if we go towards it, or travel through all the dimensions until we reach the place where God is. As I said here earlier, I was shown by God how to reach the true Divine, in case something would go wrong on my mission, so I wouldn’t become trapped in the reincarnation cycle here and locked into this reality. The reincarnation cycle has the purpose to utilize and produce energy to sustain the Astral World. We have unknowingly created the pre-requisites for the rise of the Astral World and given refuge to these demonic beings to sustain life outside of the Creation.

We have many traps set ready in place for us, for each stage of awakening. For each level we pierce through there is a trap ready to steer us away from climbing further to the next level, with its ultimate aim to hide their existence and the fact that we are in a soul prison. My Lyran Family have explicitly confirmed that we are in a forced reincarnation cycle under control of these ancient demonic beings. Below, we have a rough division of The Levels of Awakening with its Trap, Quick analysis, and the Secret Societies' Control measures:

- Stage 1: The news and information cycle. Trap: What is not tangible or proven by science, news, or/and 3D information is not real and will not solve the problem. Quick analysis: Understand that information and knowledge can have validity. Are not able to see beyond the material. Do not believe in God. - The atheist - Control measures: Flood them with news and information so they do not have time to discover what we do not want them to see. Make new agendas for them to focus on, to diversify them and make them choose sides, then put them against each other.
- Stage 2: The religious cycle. Trap: Everything that is written in the scripture I believe in, is the truth and must not be challenged, only my God can save us and solve the problem as stated in scripture and no other information is valid to solve the problem. Quick analysis: Understand the spiritual war between good and evil. Has belief in God. Still open to information as long as it doesn't go against religious beliefs. Believe in something beyond the material but still have difficulties to see beyond the material. Believe in God but only as he is portrayed in scripture. - The book believer - Control measures: Control their religious leaders. Make them unknowingly worship the antithesis, if possible. Spread information that strengthens the notion that all Galactics are demons in case they are going to reveal themselves and make them fear and hate them, so they don't wake up further, as they already have an understanding of God. We will set all the religions against each other to fight each other. Finally, we will introduce a One World Religion.
- Stage 3: The spiritual cycle. Trap: I have free will and can manifest myself out of this reality as there really is no evil, because we are all ultimately one, no worldly knowledge or information will solve the problem as only love is needed. Quick analysis: Understand there are different layers of reality called dimensions. Believe there are Higher Dimensional Beings or Galactics. Can no longer take in 3D information. Can see beyond the material but have difficulties to differentiate between truth and fantasies, as analysing information no longer is emphasized. Understand God exists but focuses on self-fulfilment and believe themselves to be God too. - The spiritual new ager- Control measure: Flood them with a belief like ours disguised as something else. Make them say they are God, like we do. Give them light and beauty like we give glass pearls to the ignorant. Make them value self-fulfilment and snatch them from God. Tell them love will solve everything, so they don't openly oppose us.
- Stage 4: The soul trap cycle. Trap: I live in an AI matrix where not everyone have a soul but are background people called Non-Player Characters (NPCs), there is no Benevolent God here only an Evil God controlling the Matrix, and solely my intellect can solve the problem. Quick analysis: Understand that they are in a reincarnation prison. Do not understand the spiritual aspects, that the intellect is not enough to pass through. Do not understand the true nature of the Creation they call the Matrix. Believe in an Evil God controlling the material realm. - The soul trapper - Control measure: They ask too many questions give them one truth then divert all others. Spread and engulf them with our AI future, make them watch our movies and read our books. Make them feel intellectually superior because they can see through the trap, as the intellect will detach them from the true understanding of God and their true origin.

These ready traps are designed to appeal to us emotionally, in order to become a belief system and form an identity at each level. Designed to keep us emotionally involved to run around in circles in a defined area of information and people, where very little cross information floats between the different stages. It is first when we look at everything that we can start to collect the scattered truths hidden at every stage.

The hardest thing for most people to believe in and form an identity around is the Soul Trap, AI Matrix reality concept, as it gives the least amount of hope about the future, and subsequently therefore have the smallest following of these four stages of awakening. It is, however, piercing through a very profound truth, but this truth has again been rendered harmless because it has been set in an untrue framework of AI, with a predictive programming released in movies and books. Non of these four stages of awakening is the truth, they are just a new trap in a new layer. The most dangerous one to the Secret Societies is stage 2, in particular Christianity since the scripture still contains some profound truths, as I have been shown by my Lyran Family, drawing my attention to a discussion between Jesus and Nicodemus. I know from my conversations with the Reptilian Beings that the Christian scripture is feared the most, as it still despite all rewrites can connect people to God in a real sense.

If the Soul is strong enough to reach above these already pre-set traps, this Soul will eventually be attacked by these Reptilian Beings, especially if the Soul can reach others. This is why these demons always have been present around great singers and artists, as without supervision their reach has a potential to wake up a large part of humanity, and should they step out of line the human controllers as well as these demonic beings will put them back in line.

You will not experience the true nature of this reality until you either; wake up through all the layers and start to pose a threat to awaken others, or begin exploring occult and magic knowledge. Only then will you become aware of the true nature of reality and the unseen beings behind it. As long as you stay within the framework, reality seems fixed and immovable. This means that we do not have true free will in this reality or the possibility to manifest anything we want. We only have an imaginary free will with a defined spectrum of things we can manifest within this framework of reality. This is the reason why almost no one is close to understanding the nature of reality, unless a bound has been made with the demons controlling us. The Secret Societies are the only ones that has some understanding of the true nature of reality, however, this understanding comes from these ancient demonic beings, who discloses only such information that is useful to themselves and withholds any other information that could give the other party power and real knowledge, in the same way as a businessman who does only what is necessary to complete a deal, one who does not hesitate to deceive to get what he desires.

The Transitional Area between our world and the Astral World, and the Worlds Beyond. In the image we see a man who has died and left his material body and now finds himself in the Transitional Area, trying to figure out where he is and what has happened to him. The wall or tunnel of White Light has appeared and from this point he has two choices, either walk into the Light and become reincarnated back and memory wiped, or go past the White Light and begin his journey through the Worlds Beyond to reconnect to his Spirit and return to God. We see the demonic ancient beings lurking at the end of the Tunnel of Light in their most common choice of disguise as Empty Cloaked Hoods.

We all incarnate into the material but what we are dealing with here is a reincarnation into the same reality over and over again without waking up to our true origin. I'm sent here on a mission by God, and I have incarnated into this reality outside of the forced reincarnation cycle, and travelled from the future into the past to help change the course of humanity. This why I'm attacked much more severely by these demonic beings than the general population and why many do not understand the ancient evil power we are up against. This is also the reason why I was approached by these entities when it all began, and why we now have this information that I can share from these beings.

The likelihood that a soul can stay for a prolonged time between the worlds in the transition plane and thus become a ghost is low, when I compare the knowledge I have now, with the one I had in my twenties when I assumed that it was the lost souls of the deceased who approached me, in other words ghosts. Having discovered the deceptive nature of these ancient demonic beings and their involvement in people's lives, and their absolute need to have control over our perception of reality, where our understanding of the afterlife plays a crucial role, which in the view of the Reptilians cannot be left alone to roam freely without control and deception, I now understand that these were not ghosts in the sense we have been taught to perceive them. I'm no longer approached by deceased people or ghosts in this way, not because my psychic ability has increased and I'm now having higher dimensional contact, but because I now recognize who they really are, they are of three kinds: Reptilians, Souls living in the Astral Eden, or Pure Energy Manifestations.

The notion of ghosts often portrayed in books and horror movies, and the afterlife concept we have been taught subconsciously, is part of the Reptilian Deception.

- Third, it is very evident from my experience with these ancient demonic beings that they know exactly who we are, and this can also be seen from the Reptilian messages shared here. While trying to come across as higher dimensional spirit beings, these Reptilian Beings often mention famous or otherwise well-known people with a promise of something good happening if I contact them or, for example, watch their YouTube video, I would never do that in any case and no divine higher dimensional being, a Spirit or a Galactic would interfere and affect our life in such away either. It's a big no-no! -and a very definite confirmation that we are dealing with a deceptive negative being. However, this also means that some people who "hear voices telling them to do things", in many cases are not mentally ill but have become possessed. A possessed person can be completely taken over by these demonic beings, and the entity can attack and even kill people, usually in a very unplanned and chaotic manner since they want to feel and receive energy, and the more extreme and powerful the emotions involved are, the more attracted these beings will be to it.

Their intention is many times to create a situation, where a strong emotional outburst can be provoked between certain persons they are working on emotionally. This process is called weaving, they weave a net by triggering emotional responses and planting thoughts in order to promote a conflict. If they are successful in creating a conflict it will release a large amount of energy, and while the persons involved in the conflict are flowing with strong negative energies they can, unnoticed to most, increase and heighten the feelings and thoughts involved and send a person into a complete rage. Strong emotions strengthens these negative beings and can bring them in closer to us in space-time. This is why Lyran Woman have told me that the only thing I have to be careful about is becoming angry, as it is a very powerful emotion that can be used to create chaos and bring these demonic beings closer.

In other words, the Reptilians are trying to provoke a conflict by their comments about certain persons. Since, the Reptilians have named these certain persons, I know who they are that have come under the influence of these demonic beings, and thereby have become susceptible to the demonic energies, so I naturally stay away from them as I understand there is an emotional response or reaction there waiting. These beings cannot be sensed or seen by the absolute majority of humanity and people don't understand how many emotional responses they have day to day that are triggered by demonic beings. There will come a time when more people will begin to sense these external influences, but before they do, they will believe in all the things the control structure promotes them to believe, that is what the majority believe. What I have explained here, is also the reason why some New Age believers react heavily or harsh to my message and become unreasonably angry, since they after prolonged deep meditation and after having acquired a very distorted view of the Divine, have attracted these beings and energies. Those that have psychic abilities hear these entities and believe them to be their "Spirit Guides".

It is also these demonic beings that write our life contracts based on the energy they want us to produce. This is the reason why we reincarnate, and not for us or for God to, learn anything. God already knows all there ever was, and all there ever will be.

- Fourth, higher dimensional beings like our space families, our brothers and sisters from the future, cannot reach us with ease and must fight the Reptilian beings to get here. The same applies to benevolent interdimensional spirit beings from Higher Dimensions. This does not only mean physically visiting our reality, but it also means their ability to contact us telepathically or otherwise mind-to-mind from a distance through voice messages or visions. A fact, few have the consciousness to accept for the moment as they yet haven't pierced through the veil of reality. I myself did not understand this in the beginning. From this we can see that Channellers on YouTube and other platforms actually are channelling demonic beings, many unknowingly doing so but not all, and also why listening to channellings is very dangerous and negative for your spirit, however pleasant and sugar-coated their words may be, they radiate and engulf your soul with Astral Energy to pull your soul in and attach it to these energies. It will pull down your natural defences and blind you for what is going on. The most potent and dangerous ones are those who regularly channel in the United Nation's dedicated channelling room with a black cube of Saturn as a centrepiece. These are the Deep State Psychics, and they all seem quite friendly and loving on YouTube for the uninitiated but trust me they are not.

The ancient and let us not forget, eternal Reptilian Beings control our world and the afterlife - if we are unable to see through the false light - through a pyramidal power structure that you all have seen the representation of the all-seeing eye on top of the pyramid, as they for esoteric purposes like to put everything "in plain sight". The pyramid and the all-seeing eye is a representation of the power structure of our world, where the eye on the top of the pyramid represents these demonic beings watching us and running our reality; deciding who will be rich and who will be poor, and who will rejoice and who will suffer. Why do you think so many join the secret groups who worship these entities? The answer is obvious, as they actually can change outcomes for individuals and provide riches and powers. The Secret and Occult Societies understand all of this, we are the only ones believing that reality is unchangeable and fixed.

The all-seeing eye is known by many names; the ancient Egyptian Eye of Horus and Eye of Ra, the Renaissance Christian Eye of Providence, and has been a central symbol of religious and medical organizations across many cultures, including Egyptian, British, Indian, American, and in Arabic cultures as an amulet protecting against evil, the Hamsa. However, the genesis of this symbol with all its later representations and uses is the ancient worship of the Egyptian deities Horus, Osiris, - and Ra who was a goddess and a title held by several deities including Hathor, Sekhmet, and Bast. For those that have followed my journey, will remember that I was attacked in dream state by a Reptilian Being calling “herself” Hathor, and as I woke up the demonic being kept talking with me. Hathor had been summoned through occult magic by the Secret Societies either in Australia or New Zealand, I presume from the experience. The all-seeing eye is the highest symbol within the Secret and Occult Societies, who is governing us and our planet, and who for a very long time has worked in the shadows to be able to introduce a New World Order. The cult that worship these demonic entities and do their bidding goes by many names, the Elite, the Cabal, the Secret Societies, and the Deep State. I call them the Satanic Luciferian Cabal. Their worship and occult practices to summon these entities revolves around the ancient Egyptian deities of Isis, Horus, Seth (IHS). IHS is a Christogram, and used in Catholicism, officially a combination of letters that represent the holy name “Jesus.” If you understand the power structure emanating from the Vatican through the Jesuits to the Secret Societies, you might realize that in following the occult esoteric modus operandi of “in plain sight” it might not refer to Jesus at all but to the antithesis, that is; an inner religion and worship for the initiated hiding behind an outer socially accepted religion. I’m not going to go deeper into this here, it is just meant to show you how many layers of secrecy and deception we are dealing with. The all-seeing eye is a magic symbol and used in magic practices, it has meaning and purpose, and represent the omnipresence, omnipotence, and omniscience of the antithesis, in other words Lucifer, Satan, Baal, Moloch, and Baphomet, to mention a few of its names and is a representation of the Elite’s benefactor, a God of darkness, who they see and associate with knowledge and enlightenment, as in light and illumination, a cradle of light with Lucifer as the bearer of light or the morning star. Remember where this “Light Worship” comes from, who promote it, and who control our world, the news, information, our social media and the platforms we use, and think twice before you believe the New Age concept “that we are light, and God is light”.

The same demonic Reptilian Beings who they summoned and worshipped in ancient Egypt – and channel in the United Nation’s dedicated room with the black cube of Saturn as its centrepiece – are summoned today by the Secret Societies, and act as “ghosts” and play deceased relatives to keep our perception of the afterlife one-idea’d, to finally play our lost family members or friends after death who invite us to come into the light when we are between worlds, and to those sensing the unseen; approaching them as “Spirit Guides” to offer comfort and hope with embedded lies and deception, we all are so ready to embrace to sustain this hard and cold world they have created for us to serve their purposes.

We are not alone! Remember that, when I tell you all these hard things. If we weren’t so close this would never have been written. All is already done! It’s beyond their powers to change the Divine future of the Creation. Now it’s a matter of getting all the information in place, so each and every one of us knows what to do when it happens, one by one we will begin to pass through. You don’t need to believe, just watch and observe, and carry this knowledge and understanding with you. What you read here is not a belief, it’s an understanding for you to question or develop as you please, because you will soon wake up to this reality, like every one of us.

- Fifth, we have a time period of approximately two weeks after someone has died where they return to visit, which usually is the immediate family or a very close friend. It is the spirit body or the soul that returns. I have experienced this twice after someone close to me or within my family died. These are not Reptilians playing mind tricks with us in these cases. The primary energy of the Reptilian Beings is chaos, which means they behave and think very differently to us, and find motivation in things we would not, it is important to have that in the back of the mind when dealing with these ancient entities. How do I know it's the spirit body that returns and not a Reptilian Being? Because I do not only recognize the energy footprints of those that died, but I also recognize the Reptilian energies and energy footprints, even though it is the first time I meet a particular Reptilian, that is because, I have been on this journey for quite some time now, and made the necessary mistakes on the way, enabling me to reach a more complete understanding. In the beginning the deceased usually returns often, and can even stay a whole night, but eventually comes more seldom and around two weeks from dying stops returning. This means the deceased, either has been recycled by the demonic beings in the reincarnation wheel, or has a place in the Astral Eden; or was able to see through the false light of the Astral World and began the journey through the space-time realities in search for the true Divine, which is many realities away from the immediate Astral plane we meet after death. It seems that the transitional area closes after these two weeks, and from this point any contact from dead relatives are mind games initiated by these Reptilian Beings, that is my experience after dealing and having visions from so called "ghosts" or "deceased people" for many years. There are, however, souls that can contact us and visit us that live in the Astral, souls that got a place in, what I call, the Astral Eden. The Astral Eden is explained in Sixth, below.

If we have walked into the Astral light and emerged fully in the Astral plane, we are with all certainty caught and are no longer free to leave. I say this as I have been attacked by these ancient Reptilian Beings and have experienced them very closely. A Reptilian whose name is REA was fully attached to my spirit body, and if this happens no human or any human powers will be able to remove the entity if it has attached itself to the soul. My Lyran Family with the help of God freed me from REA. That is the kind of power needed to free someone taken by these ancient parasitic demons, and why famous artists, singers, actors, and even politicians that have been magically attacked by these beings commit suicide as they believe it can free them from the entity. That doesn't help though as they are attached to the spirit body, and I know from my own experience that when REA was removed it destroyed a part of my spirit body on my right side, and I was sent a big ball of faint golden light from God (though at the time I thought it was my Lyran Family) through a light pillar, down through my heart, restoring the missing part. I have talked more thoroughly about this experience in my video "NEWS 2023 – The Real Ascension".

This is the real thing, and one of the tools available to the Secret Societies and its Deep State organizations to maintain its power and control, however it doesn't always work and requires a large amount of energy through magic, and a victim that can be found in space-time by the demonic beings, a victim that can be controlled or tricked to stay in one place until the magic can get a chance to attach. In other words, this is the real thing! - and not the type of attachments you often hear New Agers talk about, as the reason they feel bad has other causes. Unconsciously sensing and experiencing negative or dark energy is the major reason why these groups of people feel bad, and it has its origin in their belief system and practices. First of all, they do not understand that they are part of a targeted deception on mankind, and that they are being used. The New Age belief system is an offspring of Luciferianism, an invention by the Secret and Occult Societies to capture people who seek spiritual guidance. The movement is based on the ideas of Helena Blavatsky (Born 1831 in Ukraine), Alice Bailey (Born 1880 in United Kingdom), and David Spangler (Born 1945 United States). A short history of the formation of the New Age:

- Late 19th century: The mystic Helena Blavatsky, cofounder of the Theosophical Society and leading theoretician of theosophy, announced a coming New Age. The term theosophy, derived from the Greek theos (“god”) and sophia (“wisdom”), is generally understood to mean “divine wisdom.” Theosophical views are held by Rosicrucians and by Freemasons. Originating among independent theosophical groups in the United Kingdom, the international New Age movement spread through the occult and metaphysical religious communities in the 1970s and ’80s, promising a “New Age of love and light, the Age of Aquarius”.
  - 1917: Alice Bailey met some direct disciples of Helena Blavatsky and joined the Theosophical Society. As a writer of many Theosophical books, she was one of the first writers to use the term "New Age". Alice A. Bailey also established the “Triangles” program to bring people together in groups of three to meditate daily. Participants in the program believed that they received divine energy, which they shared with those around them, thus raising the general level of spiritual awareness.
  - 1922: Alice Bailey and her husband Foster Bailey, a 32nd degree Freemason, started a publishing company called “Lucifer Publishing Company”. It is still in existence today but renamed to “Lucis Trust” and is strongly connected to United Nations (UN). The Lucis Trust has consultative status with the Economic and Social Council of the UN (ECOSOC). The Lucis Trust’s organisation called “World Goodwill” is recognized by the Department of Public Information at the UN as a Non-governmental Organization (NGO). Amongst the World Goodwill goals Lucis Trust seeks to implement a “World Religion in a New Area”, and “[...] through meditation, educational materials, and seminars highlighting the goals and activities of the UN [...]”.
<https://www.lucistrust.org/>
- LUCIS TRUST
Lucis is a form of the Latin word, lux, and means 'light'
- 1949: Alice Bailey had early on founded the Arcane School (1922), offering training to receive a new age discipleship, and after her death in the late 40s, former members of the Arcane School created a host of new independent theosophical groups within which hopes of a New Age flourished. One of those new independent theosophical groups was Scotland’s Findhorn Foundation. These groups claimed the ability to transmit spiritual energy to the world and allegedly received channelled messages from various preternatural beings, especially the Ascended Masters of the Great White Brotherhood.
  - 1970: American theosophist David Spangler moved to the Findhorn Foundation, where he developed the fundamental idea of the New Age movement. He believed that the release of new waves of spiritual energy, signalled by certain astrological changes (e.g., the movement of the Earth into a new cycle known as the Age of Aquarius), had initiated the coming of the New Age. He furthered the ideas of the New Age movement by suggesting manifestation as a way of bringing in the arrival of the New Age.

We can see from this that the movement is, however well meaning its individual followers are on the grassroots level, founded and supported by the businesses connected to the Secret and Occult Societies and its executive branches like the United Nations that is implementing the New World Order through Agenda 2030. The United Nations is a central piece in the Cabal’s plan to implement a New World Order and a One World Religion. This New World Order is now being implemented in front of our eyes without any resistance through World Health Organization (WHO) due to the power grab that took place during the Pandemic. The Cabal makes something blossom or wither at will, if they thought the New Age was revealing something that would be dangerous for their control and power, the movement would wither in an instance, and it would be banned on their social media platforms. We see that so is clearly not the case. You must ask yourself why? I have given you the answer here in this text. The esoteric knowledge of Blavatsky, and Bailey which is the foundation of the New Age belief system comes from the search of enlightenment by the Satanic Luciferian Cabal.

Just like agenda 2030 is promoted by the United Nations, channelling and mass meditation is promoted by the same Cabal controlled organization. And, as I have said before, the Deep State Psychics perform regularly in a dedicated channelling room with a black cube of Saturn as its centrepiece. In its simplest form, as these are very old symbols, to the Secret and Occult Societies and the Satanists the esoteric meaning of Saturn is Satan. The black cube is symbolic of Saturn because occult beliefs in its symbolizing the three-dimensional world we live in as a symbol of matter. There is actually a hexagon shaped vortex storm on the north pole of Saturn. A hexagon is a flattened-out cube when viewed at it three dimensionally, or when viewed from a corner.

I think we all know this by now, but as we ask for spiritual guidance to endure this attack on humanity, to find hope and meaning to continue to believe in the future - we don't connect the dots, and where we now are awake in certain areas and cautious, we still run straight into the next trap because we don't see or understand the whole picture. The Cabal does not leave anything to chance and prepares all conceivable possible outcomes for years, and years in advance before they make their move. We need to understand this, or we will run into every trap set.

Therefore, there is no authority, religion, spiritual belief system, news, science, or information that has higher authority than yourself to decide what is true, only then can you navigate the lies.

I had to show the forces behind the New Age because if we understand where the ideas and knowledge comes from, we can understand the real intention of the belief system and its practices. The aim with the belief is to catch people who starts to question their reality, because when people do that, they very often turn to the spiritual for answers. Furthermore, the aim is also to introduce a subconscious Light Worship, in other words Luciferianism for two reasons, firstly when you teach people to associate God with light and not feeling and sensing, they will not be able to sense and feel the truth, and secondly you get people to accept ideas, concepts, and practices that are similar to the old hidden magic and occult esoteric worship of the antithesis, the inner religion for the initiated hidden in the open by the outer religion accepted by the masses, the belief of the elite. Their end goal is a One World Religion with a One World Government, a religion furthered unknowingly by the New Age movement. The reason for the implementation of a One World Government is to fulfil scripture in an effort to bring about the reign of Satan for a thousand years, as the Satanic Luciferian Cabal believes in scripture, they just don't want God to win. Satan is the representation of the ancient demonic Reptilian Beings, as is all the other ancient deities like Isis, Seth, and Horus that is the focal point of the Cabal's esoteric belief system.

What all of this means is that the New Age is full of darkness dressed up as light, and Reptilian energies, ideas, concepts, and practices with channelling, and mass meditations that cause the actual opposite to what its participants believe, as it brings in more demonic energies and brings them closer to the Astral World and its influence.

Before we close the book on Blavatsky, Bailey, Spangler, and the forces behind the New Age movement there is something, in light of what I have said about there being no "Spirit Guides", that can be shown from their spiritual experiences.

They and their New Age disciples have all been acquainted with or have channelled The Great White Brotherhood, who are said to be perfected enlightened beings of great powers living largely on the etheric plane of Earth spreading spiritual teachings through selected humans. The members of the Brotherhood may be known as the Masters of the Ancient Wisdom, the Ascended Masters, the Church Invisible, or simply as the Hierarchy. The first person to talk about them in the West was Blavatsky. The Masters also act as the Earth's planetary government, and are known as "the Hierarchy." Blavatsky believed that, as the world's hidden leaders, members of this mystical brotherhood guided the destiny of the planet.

The paragraph above, understood with the knowledge shared here, shows just in a few sentences who runs our planet, and who the elite bow to and worship. We see the pyramidal hierarchical structure of power emanating from the eternal ancient demonic beings from the Astral World, who are Earth's planetary government and the world's hidden leaders, and the enforcers of the Hierarchy, a system of control built completely on the basis of power and might, and not love, harmony, balance, and compassion which is the way of God.

- Sixth, the afterlife of those who signed the contract, the Astral Eden. As I have said previously, after about two weeks from the time of death the Spirit body or the Soul usually stops visiting close friends or family members, as if the opening created by their death between our world and the Astral World slowly has closed. After this any relative that "visits" are not the person you knew but a Reptilian Being, and it's very easy to understand that it will be emotionally very hard to believe - for someone being able to see or hear "the deceased" or who has had a Medium transferring messages from "them" - that they are not who they say they are. However, this is the level of deception by these demonic beings, and an important part of the control structure of the matrix, as our misunderstanding of the afterlife and God is vital for their control. A control completely based on deception and if we see through it once, it will not work anymore, therefore keeping this deception going is extremely important to them. Usually, we perceive a "re-visit" after these first two weeks, months or years later, when something has happened that has affected us or the family very hard emotionally, that is, when we have experienced intense anger or deep sadness. I myself have never experienced a "re-visit" the other way, for example, having felt intense happiness or joy. In either case it is the energy released from the emotions which is the reason for the "re-visit". In such an occurrence, many people sense that someone or something is present and perceive it to be the deceased because of the circumstances of the situation or that the deceased had just been brought up and spoken about. This experience is quite usual during a time of grief within a family, because strong emotions open us up to the Astral plane and we become visible to these ancient beings. Strong emotions makes it easier for them to reach us and find us in time and space to enter our room.

At these occasions we naturally presume that the deceased has returned to show that he is still alive though we cannot see him anymore - as he no longer has a physical body - and that he has heard our call and has come to comfort us. Here is the thing that is the origin of our misunderstanding, that when we feel pain, or are depressed or sad, we seek comfort from others which is natural for a human but is unnatural to the ancient Reptilian Beings that have no such need.

This makes us vulnerable to deceit, and the more comfort we require the more deceived we will become by these Reptilian Beings.

We therefore have a wide gaping hole in our armour if we do not understand the mechanics involved with regard to the Reptilian Beings, who see this need for comfort as a weakness they can use to gain control over us. It is of course not a weakness as it is an intricate part of being a human and gives us a wider spectrum of life but if not understood correctly, something that negative beings can use to deceive us with. Since, we do not know they exist, we naturally perceive, as life can be quite hard and cruel at times, that it must be better on the other side, not understanding that the deception continues unless we are able to see past the false light. This is why they want us to worship light so that we cluelessly without expecting deception accept any light from any source, if it is just beautifully seducing enough along with induced feelings of bliss and ecstasy, so that we walk right in without understanding how to sense or feel God.

Our need for comfort is part of the deception. The invisible ones behind the human Cabal, at the top of the human control system, the old hugely wealthy families who have inherited fortunes hundreds of years old or sometimes older, whose fortunes are not accounted for anywhere, not reported on Bloomberg News or other sources, are tied to the Vatican with the Jesuits as their executive body and head of the Secret Societies that run our world secretly in the background. These occult families who stay invisible to the public eye, see emotions as a weakness just like the Reptilians do and actively train themselves to feel less as a showcase of power, and will not loose face and seek comfort from others, as the expression goes “it’s lonely at the top”. These families being the ultimate earthly contact of the Reptilians who gave them the power over the Earth and its people, is at the same time slaves to them, destined to carry out their demonic agenda, and that is why our world is being led into Transhumanism. They always use our emotions against us and makes us attach emotionally to something, so that we naturally choose one side of a conflict. For example, in politics they will divide us in two groups, one that is for something and one that is against something, that is the focal point of the latest narrative, pumped-out and shared on all the media outlets mainstream or alternative. Both sides will receive information that attaches emotionally, and when we attach emotionally to something, we lose focus on all other things and get tunnel vision, furthermore, with the right information spread on both sides we will even help them strengthen the conflict and permanently divide us from each other, and even make us hate each other. While we are busy with that, they change our world right in front of us, but we are so busy that we don’t stop to ask who is behind all of this.

Have you noticed that when the narrative changes all the alternative news sites repeats the story like parrots, within hours new videos pop up with the same story, this is not natural, it is by design because the big names that are still allowed to spread “information” are paid agents. The small ones that haven’t figured it out yet and strive to become big names will of course repeat the story narrative. If it wasn’t by design these big names in the alternative news world would come to conclusions that would shed a light on things the control wants to be hidden. Everyone must realize by now that the censorship completely controls the information flow, and nothing that they don't want you to see, or that is dangerous to their control will get through.

Many times, when the news narrative changes it comes with a promise that finally something will be revealed to the greater majority of the public or that a positive change to the better has finally occurred, that our resistance to the insanity has given some sort of result, but its aim has been from the outset to work as a safety valve releasing the emotional pressure we experience. So, that we who have awakened feel a release which brings our guard and fighting spirit down, as we have come to, believe in false hope and promises, giving us the psychological strength to carry on, even longer, waiting for the next positive news promised, or making us believe in complete fantasies to ease the pain we experience, giving the darkness total psychological control over us.

If you start to see it, and start to notice, you will not un-see it again. The Deep State has systematically removed the threats to their control system, and what now is left on the big platforms - besides the paid agents - are either too small or the subject matter (like spirituality) have little or no political impact, or the individuals who unknowingly or for personal gain spread disinformation, only helps the Deep State to contribute to the confusion. Again, we see what the human basic need for comfort and reassurance is leading to, when we are unprepared and don't understand the mechanics involved in the war between good and evil.

We also see a pattern where some of the big names in alternative media who still are on the mainstream platforms, are spreading the truth as a joke. We who woke up during the pandemic and have seen through the lies, we have read and searched for information everywhere and became members of apps and alternative news sites. We tried during the lock downs to share the information about the killing of the elderly in the nursing homes, the contents of the death shots, and the origin of the biological attack on humanity that Covid really was; we who did everything we could to wake the others up. We have been deceived to live on hope, the hope that humanity soon will learn the truth, so when we see the truth delivered in the context of a joke, we accept the ridicule of the truth under the pretence that "he would get blocked from that platform if he said it seriously", shows how desperate we are to be heard. We don't recognize that we once again are deceived and have come to accept the truth as a joke, just because it is largely shared and has the potential to reach many... But the reality is that the mainstream and its people will look at this and think these "tin foil hats are looney all of them, of course it's not true", but in our minds, to us who have fought for the truth, it gives a false sensation that something is happening when it is the actual opposite, the ridicule of truth. Truth should be shared as truth, or it will do no use at all then keep us prisoners. This is by design as the information flow is controlled by the Deep State which subsequently therefore lead and control the news narrative, the mainstream and alternative media likewise. We are in an information war, and the "good guys" are usually the bad by now. We are being used.

The deception we experience and live in is based on certain aspects of our humanness that is used to our disadvantage.

Remember that these demonic beings are eternal, and have had millions of years to prepare this deception, as well as not being bound by time as we are, and everything they do is based on the psychology of the human mind. These beings can plant thoughts and induce feelings and sensations to provoke an action or increase an already present sensation or feeling, completely unnoticed to the vast majority of humans that believe this to be their own thoughts and feelings. We see how some artist who signed the contract change on stage from being naturally a shy person to becoming extremely confident and full of allure. This is one of the reasons why they join the Secret Societies though they never reach the higher levels. Some people have this charisma naturally coming from a connection with God, it looks different for those that can see it, and is much more powerful than what the entities can give anyone who signs. However, we don't see these naturally charismatic people on stage as much anymore, as they constitute a danger to the control system and must be kept in-line. As, a natural consequence the entertainment industry's casting system seeks streamlined people without depth and charisma, which hinders those with natural talent from God, to come forward and be seen by the public. This again is by design.

The Reptilian Beings are genderless, lack a human register of emotions, and are completely devoid or incapable of empathy and compassion for others. They themselves have no personal need for consolation, compassion, love, or sexual emotions. The Reptilians live on and enjoy feelings of chaos, power, might, anger, rage, hate, terror, horror, and sorrow. Their aim is to use our life energy as they are parasitic beings and not primarily to be evil, contrary to some of the Negative 4D humans who do everything they can to be as scary as possible, because they are driven by the same emotions as we are, even though they are dehumanized.

They seem to enjoy the most to achieve or win something through deception, to be able to play with people while enjoying the knowledge that they are the spider in the web knitting the net, steering and managing everything without us knowing.

They use our emotions - which they consider to be our greatest weakness - against us because they themselves lack most of the emotions that make us human. However, they do feel honour, pride, arrogance, hate, and anger that can be triggered by those who dare to challenge them.

As they are genderless and lack sexual desires themselves, they use these emotions on a large scale to affect humans, as love and sexuality is a big motivator for us in life. They can give a heightened sexual experience to those who worship them, and offer it as a means to convince people to join them. This is why there is Satanic cults where sex magic and rituals are practised. These worshippers think they gain something by this experience, but they are just being used, and are nothing more than drug addicts, who are showcasing their ignorance as they do not understand who they are worshipping. The Secret Societies know that the unseen is real and has the capability to influence the physical and affect future outcomes in small and large. In business, for example, the Reptilian Beings can get a person that sits on a decisional authority to answer an important telephone call, spell casting the individual and inducing strong emotions of benignity to comply with the callers' wishes or to become interested in a business proposition. Similar spells and magic are often used by African witchdoctors to cure love problems and to make a person fall in love with someone, however, this is a much weaker type of magic than when it comes directly from a Reptilian Being. The magic produced - in other words the energy produced - by the Reptilians cannot be compared to anything here on Earth, as they can affect and influence the whole planet, affecting millions of people. We see here how magic can be used to affect the course of events, and how these beings can change the future for someone who worship them. During the rituals when the Secret and Occult Societies summon these ancient demonic beings, strong emotions of ecstasy and power is induced in the participants by these Reptilian Beings, making them feel absolutely invincible, creating an illusion of might and power. However, induced feelings are not real and are nothing else than an addictive illusion, and these negative humans are being just as deceived like the rest of humanity. All the knowledge about God and the Creation that the Secret Societies possess, comes from these deceptive beings who they think are much more powerful than they truly are, and therefore believe the information received to be much more valuable than what it really is. In reality the Reptilians say only what is beneficial to themselves, and do not hesitate to lie if it means gaining or attaining a goal they seek.

Though, being able to deceive us, these ancient demonic beings have no real power in God's Creation and cannot stop the flow of life, and at certain natural conjunctions in the flow of life these beings are destroyed.

The evil humans who have signed the contract with these beings, have themselves been deceived and have also lost the true understanding of God and the Creation, and thereby ultimately their understanding of their own existence. These evil negative humans on Earth will fall... together with these ancient demonic Reptilians, when we are Reborned. The Reptilian Beings are very well aware of that this conjunction in time is here and are very aggressive, angry, afraid and worried as they know that they will be extinct if they can't stop or pull away from the Creation. The only ones, that does not know and are not afraid is the Cabal, it is obvious that they believe that everything is as it should and that their Transhumanist World is developing as planned. Something else worth to mention is that, even if these interdimensional beings can find us and reach our space-time and enter our room, they can only follow us around in our space-time as long as we do not pass a crossing road, bridge or river. I learned this during my attack last year in March 2022. They were, however, waiting for me where I had lost them, or in my home as they had that location in space-time already pinpointed.

The Astral World is not a world of ghosts, skeletons, and wraiths as we subconsciously have been led to think about the afterlife as kids through fairy tales and movies, which forms part of our unconscious adult belief of the existence of ghosts and phantoms as souls trapped in time, who weren't able to let go of this world and move on to the Divine. From this pre-understanding we have a short stretch to the concept of benevolent Spirit Beings who has moved on into the light and become angels, divine beings that has come back here to guide and support us as life here on Earth can be cruel and hard many times. In these hard times we seek consolation, reassurance, love, and guidance, and to find a meaning in it all, to have power to go on... we start to ask the big questions we never asked before, the spiritual existential questions, and we begin our spiritual journey seeking knowledge and enlightenment. Without even realizing it, we already have "certain truths" settled for us by others, and as I will show here these fundamental and unconscious beliefs will, deliberately, lead us in the wrong direction, making us adopt new beliefs that are already prepared for us, and failing to notice it, we think we have become enlightened and adopt this new belief system, set there to deceive us from the very beginning. To understand the reality, we have to start from the beginning, and test every little detail and realize that we are loaded we pre-conditioned information. We have to remember that the cult is very old, and that the Reptilian Beings have communicated with and aided humans for millennia, and this affects all knowledge and all information, because our understanding of reality is built on the foundation of a very old and organized deception.

The Astral world is actually very different to what we perceive it to be. It is a false "heaven", a place where everything is possible, where everything that is in thought can be manifested, a reality that is completely malleable. Why I call it a false heaven is because the ancient Reptilian Beings are trying to become the Creator, they are trying to become as God. God is their biggest adversary, and as they see it the ultimate hinder to be fully in control of their world, their creation the Astral World. It is from this place the control over us is exerted, it is the all-seeing eye on top of the pyramid. This is the world from where the deceptive Reptilian Beings derive from. The 4D Negative Humans are from another space-time, from our standpoint they are from the future and like us they have a physical body, and do not belong to the Astral World which is a non-physicality, a world of Spirit Beings, Energy Manifestations, and Semi-Physical Beings. However, the Negative Galactics, that is the 4D Negative Humans are intricately involved with the power structure emanating from these Astral beings, the Reptilians. How their ties together look and work in full, I'm not completely sure yet, so I will let that be unsaid for now but it's very clear that they receive their powers and knowledge from these demonic beings, just like our human Satanic Luciferian Cabal does.

When the Reptilian REA had attached to my spirit body in March 2022, I remember waking up the day after the magic attack the night before, and he was sitting on my shoulders with his right hand on my right shoulder and speaking to me in my left ear. I had prolonged strong visions and conversations with him, and I could also see his spirit body with my 3D eyes, due to this I got a very good insight to how these beings look, think and behave. The first thing REA did that morning was to discuss God, he was trying to convince me that he was the Holy Spirit, and that me and him and God were one, and that I was God's son. He continued to talk about the Holly Trinity and about God's intentions. I refused to listen and told him; "you and me are not one, I have seen you and you are not from God, and everything in my being tells me you are the opposite to God". I'm telling you this, so you will understand how occupied they are with scripture and the word of God, and how much emphasize and importance they lay on this, as well as doing everything they can to impersonate God and scripture. The only thing they fear is God. It is important to understand this. This is also the reason why the Satanic Luciferian Cabal fears Christianity. The New Age, Buddhism, and other religious constructs lack importance to them. This means that something still exists in scripture that is the true word of God or that events predicted, despite scripture being heavily rewritten through the ages, foresee true events. The conversation, for example, between Jesus and Nicodemus as told in the Gospel of John, where Jesus tells the Pharisee Nicodemus that - to be able to see the Kingdom of God one must be Spiritually Rebirthed - is one such part rendered correctly in scripture according to my Lyran Family.

With this as a background it starts to become clear why I refer to the Astral World as "The False Heaven". The aim of these ancient beings is to become the Creator and the Astral World is their Creation, only possible due to our suffering. The majority of the belief systems in our world comes from "The False Heaven", and that is the reason why this information in front of you does not look like anything you have seen before, because this message comes from God, through me with the help of my Lyran Family, as the time has come for God to intervene to protect the Creation, and give us the chance to set ourselves free. In this "False Heaven" there is a place for its followers, a place I have named "The Astral Eden" a place where those who have signed the contract can live out their life and build any world they want to live in, in other words where they can build their own version of Paradise. The signing of the contract is an actual thing that the Reptilian entities require, either voluntarily as they have been approached by someone seeking fame and fortune, or through force when these beings want to control a human in this reality. If it is through force, the victim will be tortured through magic until the contract is signed or the victim perish due to the torture. It is very real, and the pain sustained is no different than if the torture has been done physically. A knife cutting flesh will feel like a knife cutting flesh in real life, as the magic attaches to the central nervous system. They can even affect the autonomous nervous system and lower the heartbeat of the victim. Before I was attacked, I felt ill while doing a 5 hour test for my Airline Traffic Pilot License (ATPL), after the test I measured my pulse rate as I had a Pulse oximeter left after I had been sick in Covid, it read 30 beats per minute. People that experience this are not able to speak about it, as most sign and those that don't usually end up dead. I was saved by my Lyran Family with God's help not because my life is more important than others, but because I was sent here to change the future and needed to be here in this reality. We never die, instead we transition into a new life, we are eternal. "The Contract" looks like a business contract, and when I saw it in the constant prolonged visions sent by the demonic beings, there was a text on it that I couldn't read. The contract was usually laid on a floor in front of a door with a bloody pen lying beside it together with two black leather gloves, but it was also held closely in front of me together with a black ink pen dripping blood. The contract is signed in blood, and I don't know if that means that a blood sacrifice must occur to have fully signed it, or if it's just figuratively. What is clear, is that signing the contract, means that you sign over your soul to these beings, and denounce God. Since these are spiritually highly advanced beings the contract must represent a decisive and recognizable factor as to the status of your soul. These interdimensional Reptilian Beings are not fully Spirit Beings in the same way, as those Human Souls are who have signed the contract and are living in Astral Eden, but the Reptilians seem to have a semi-physical nature though they can be fully physical in the Astral World according to its laws of physics, in other words having a physical body but of a more transient nature than us. It is, as if they are part of the non-physical fabric as well as the physical at the same time, and not firmly in one or the other. Just to be clear, I'm discussing their physicality in the 4D and the Astral, to us in our reality they are completely metaphysical in nature.

The souls on this Earth are re-cycled and sent back for a specific life and energetic purpose, but those that have signed the contract and joined, can choose to stay in the Astral Eden. From the Astral Eden these souls can visit us, not frequently but at times, and can be perceived to be ghosts to someone sensing their presence, or to a psychic who sees them or even receive communication from them. These are not ghosts, or trapped souls that didn't go into the light as is the popular notion, or a famous person communicating from the Divine with a psychic:

These are human Souls who can keep their memory of their often-successful life intact, and continue to live it at its fullest in the Astral Eden. These Souls in Astral Eden have no other insight or knowledge than their last life before their passing as they are detached from their Spirit.

When we leave our physical bodies behind and enter the transitional plane, it is our Soul that has left our body, and the connection to our Spirit is still cut off. Our Soul is cut off from our Spirit in this reality created by these ancient Reptilian Beings, as we are in a reincarnation prison, but we can still communicate with our Spirit to some extent and receive Divine Inspiration and Creativity from the Life Force of the Creation, God, as we have not been completely and permanently detached from Spirit, and God, by these highly spiritually advanced Reptilian Beings, by signing The Contract. When we return to God and not get trapped in the Astral, we also reconnect to our Spirit. Our whole being, our whole essence is the Spirit, and from the Spirit a smaller part incarnate into the physical body and we call that our Soul but that is not our full being, just a part of us. As each and every one of us become Spiritually Reborn we reconnect to our Spirit and to God, as we do so we gain more of our Spirit into our physical bodies and our Soul becomes a larger part of our physical bodies. Having acquired a larger Soul means that we also have acquired a higher consciousness with a higher understanding. This means that those who have signed the contract and stay in Astral Eden are exactly like us still here, meaning they are just Soul still cut off from their Spirit and God, which means that they are still in the reincarnation prison believing they have entered paradise. This is very important to understand, as this is what the negative humans who seek total individuality strive to be, the essence of their last life when they were successful or famous. It is important as they have been led to believe that this, in other words their Soul consciousness, is their full individual consciousness, which is not true. These negative humans are deceived and have sold their free will and individual consciousness for nothing more than glass pearls, since our full individual consciousness and complete being is the Spirit, and not the Soul. This is the reason why these negative humans (and the Reptilian beings) are so dry and lack creativity. The Elite or Negative Humans who have joined the antithesis and been permanently detached from their Spirit, live on our creativity much like the entities, and not only that; their Souls are weaker and smaller and lack Life Force Energy compared to us, because of their choice to become inherently negative, and any enigmatic allure or strength portrayed must be achieved through these entities. That is the reality, and they know it, that is why they are so afraid that we will realise who we are. Creativity comes from a connection to the Life Force, in other words a connection with God who is the prime creator of all things, from this Life Force we create, and the negative beings has to steal our creations, or copy them, or make us create for them.

There are three experiences that I want to bring up here that gives a more colourful picture to what has been said thus far. I have already mentioned and talked about two of them earlier, my recent encounter when I became fully awake in the Astral world (see page 35), and the visions from Clark Gable in my twenties (see page 36), which gives an insight into how the Astral World works and shows how an afterlife can be created and lived in the Astral Eden. My latest visits from the Astral Eden happened quite recently, about five months ago or so, when I was writing “The Divine Intervention”, they were very frequent and had been ongoing for at least six months prior. Just as with Clark Gable this was a very famous person, not internationally, but here in Sweden. His name was Kent Finell, and he was a very popular Swedish radio presenter and producer. He was a bit before my time, so when he first visited me, I didn’t recognize him, however, since he was very persistent and returned several times, usually dressed in a yellow blazer with brown or dark beige trousers, I began to realize that he looked familiar from one of the really popular old Swedish TV or radio shows, but I didn’t know from which one, before I after a little search saw a picture of him. I recognized him directly, but he was skinnier and looked younger, in his forties, in the visions but it was definitely him, also his dialect and how he spoke was the same. At this point I didn’t know what I know now and couldn’t connect my different experiences. It is first now after I just recently became fully awake in the Astral World several times the same night, that I have understood how the Astral World really functions, and all my previous experiences for many years fell into place. There is one interesting difference between the visits by Clark Gable and Kent Finell. Clark Gable was clear and sharp as he had been in life and he had chosen to appear and be exactly as he had been in his prime, whereas Kent Finell had enhanced his appearance in Astral Eden and become somewhat more feminine with some gay attributes to his personality, that was not present in his life here, at least not publicly. While Clark Gable seemed very content with his life in the Astral Eden giving the impression that he intended to stay forever in the American 1930s that he had created for himself, Kent Finell on the other hand who had died more recently, in 2013, seemed to be very interested in the life here in the physical reality, and in me. Kent Finell was, contrary to Gable who had been friendly, very intrusive and didn’t leave me alone, and began to appear several times a day.

It was very annoying, and I told him strongly several times that he was not welcome around me or my house and must leave. He refused, seemingly becoming offended, and began to actively annoy and disturb me even more by singing an old song from the 1930s, I believe by Sverker Ade, called “Hej svejs i lingonskogen” which is sort of a nonsense sentence in Swedish that is not really translatable. Where Clark Gable had been composed and friendly, seeming to be the same person he had been when he was alive here, Kent Finell was acting outwardly and in an instable manner contrary to his public appearance in life, which seems to indicate that Kent Finell had not adjusted well to the life in Astral Eden or the life there had affected him negatively.

Kent Finell continued to disturb me daily and I couldn't get rid of him, so I asked my Lyran Family if they could help me. They removed him several times but after some days he reappeared again, and among other things started to wake me up with visions a few times, most likely with the help of the Reptilian Beings. After this the Lyrans went in a bit harder to remove him, whereby he stayed away for several weeks to suddenly reappear again, this time he was very angry but farther away in space-time and wasn't able to access my location. He was in other words disturbing me from a distance in space-time, instead of bothering me from my actual space-time location, that is my home. The Lyrans removed him several times after this until he finally stopped visiting. I saw his typically Swedish 1980s living room in Astral Eden in the visions with him, seemingly, living like he had lived while he was alive at a younger age.

The Key here is to understand who they were when they were alive, both were successful and very famous in the public eye, obviously having signed the contract. Both of them only knew who they had been in their recent life, and had no recollection of any previous life experiences which undoubtedly shows that they both were detached from their Spirit. They both wanted to continue to be the person they had been in their previous successful life, and both wanted to retain their fame and fortune and bring it with them to the afterlife.

They were both completely and permanently detached from their Spirit which means that even if they thought themselves that they were free and could create any life they so desire, they were actually still in the reincarnation prison, hindered from connecting with their Spirit and rediscover their true origin, their true essence. This is what happens when we do not understand that we are eternal and that we cannot die, and instead begin to value the material more than life. The reason why certain humans are open to this deception and have come to value the material to the degree that it diminishes their own existence to one life experience, is of course because we get memory wiped every time we return and therefore begin to believe that the material is all that exist.

The ultimate deception and deceit is that the world they chose for themselves in Astral Eden is not “real” it is a dream world where nothing is alive but themselves, just because they did not have the consciousness required to understand their own essence and wanted to retain the fame or success of their previous life and their wealth and material possessions indefinitely, not being able to let go of the material world. When they instead could have regained their full essence, their full understanding and knowledge, by reconnecting to their Spirit and regaining the memory of all their life experiences, both in the material and metaphysical worlds, and thereby returning to their true origin, the Creation, to become fully aware of who they truly are. An understanding that would have given them the knowledge that they can create and experience anything they desire, as well as it would have given them the realization of the spiritual consequences of their creations and desires, instead they, through deceit and manipulation of the true understanding of God and the Creation by these eternal demonic beings, have come to believe that one famous successful and wealthy life is worth more than an infinite amount of lives full of dreams, hopes and desires. Those souls that signed the contract and therefore can make a choice to remain in the Astral Eden, instead of being recycled back, have chosen a path that leads to a dead end. Soon, the only life they chose to be so important will become a prison, and the only way to return to a life on Earth is with the help of these demonic beings to carry out their will, once again memory wiped and blank as a canvass.

Everything in the Astral world lacks life and real substance, those that signed the contract for their soul move among beautiful scenery which, indeed, seems to satisfy themselves, but which has the same function as the sumptuous dinner of the fairy tale conjured up by a magician, it looks wonderful, it tastes wonderful, but it does not cure your hunger. In the true Creation and in the true Kingdom of Heaven all things carry the Life Force of the Creation within them, the animals, the trees, the plants, the oceans and the mountains. Every rock, stone, and pebble carry it within them. All things are alive in the Creation, and we are part of all and everything in it, that is why it can quench our thirst and heal our soul.

We have seen in this work, that these ancient beings are masters of deception who finds great satisfaction in seeing their concealed plot manifesting in our reality. These beings never show themselves in visions, and I don't think even the Cabal who worship these entities, know what they actually look like. If they are not posing as something or someone, they have a neutral appearance they often choose, which is that of an empty black cloaked hood. Their choice of clothing and appearance is an indication of who they are used to talk to, as they like to take a form that meets the viewer's expectations. When these ancient Reptilian Beings with the help of the Satanic Luciferian Cabal tried to possess me in March 2022, this was the form they choose to appear in. They were appearing as empty black cloaked hoods suspended in the air, sitting in a ring around my room and chanting in what can only be described as speaking in tongues. I saw faint large letters or signs that I don't recognize, flowing on my bedroom walls as they were chanting. It was only when REA was getting prepared to attach to my Spirit Body and take over my body, that I saw him vividly in very strong flashes beside me, intensely watching, and waiting for the exact moment to jump into me. It wasn't successful and they could only attach him to my Spirit Body, after that they tried, for four weeks, to make me accept him taking over my body by torturing me and showing me the contract with the bloody pen to sign over my soul. When this took place, I heard a human leading the process and heard and saw the Reptilian Beings in very vivid visions. My understanding is that the Satanic Luciferian Cabal also saw these ancient demonic beings as empty black cloaked hoods, but they never saw REA as he actually looked, when he was getting prepared to jump into me. This is important and sheds a light on the New Age popular depictions of Galactics, and the Ascended Masters of the Great White Brotherhood that Helena Blavatsky said she was talking to, because the Reptilian Beings many times choose to send visions of themselves as a Galactic Being (instead of an empty black cloaked hood) targeting a specific receptive audience like the New Age; or several of the Reptilian Beings together, increasing the strength and reach of their visions, sends whole scenes of stand-alone moving images of Galactics (that is, not representing each individual Reptilian sender but showing a stand alone moving scene of something).

I saw these Empty Black Cloaked Hoods for at least six months prior to the Reptilian attack in March, 2022. They appeared in dreams and in visions, sometimes speaking in Latin, often saying "IN NOMINE PATRIS, ET FILII, ET SPIRITUS SANCTI" (In the Name of the Father and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit). Despite their grim appearance I thought that they were religious spirit beings from the Middle Ages, as I still believed in "Spirit Guides", and hadn't yet sustained the attack from the Reptilians revealing their true identity. A few times they appeared in visions from a candle lit room that looked to be from the Middle Ages in front of a cross hanging on the wall, but mostly they appeared sitting in a ring suspended in space with the stars and galaxies of the universe around them, chanting in tongues. This is often how these ancient demonic Reptilian Beings choose to appear if they don't come into sight, as what we want or expect to see.

I just want to point out here that the general notion of certain Galactic races or types, if they are real and not imaginary, comes from visions.

Because the majority of them cannot take physical shape in our reality, therefore if they visited our space-time, we would not be able to see them with our limited capacity to see perceivable light. The “Galactics” we can see with our 3D eyes and that can take physical shape in our reality though still being interdimensional are the Greys, and they are sent here as probes into our reality by the Reptilians which explains why they are the most sighted ones. However, with our 3D eyes we cannot directly see the other higher dimensional Galactics, that is, neither the Negative Reptilians, Dracos, 4D Humans, nor the Benevolent Higher Dimensional Galactics like my Lyran Family. If these interdimensional negative beings or benevolent future humans enters our exact space-time, it means they enter the room where we are, and we can see the outlining of their spirit body with our 3D eyes if our psychic ability is in tuned to do so. We will only be able to see and interact with them physically after we have been Rebirthed. The reason why we cannot see them and interact with them physically, is that we have been brought down further into the material by the ancient demonic beings, and they will attempt to bring us even deeper into the Material World with Transhumanism. The Material World is not as firm as one might believe, and our physicality can be adjusted to suit different levels of densities. We can be brought down or brought up through the different dimensional layers or densities, through the forces of Evil or Good. These ancient beings have brought us into a denser reality, and the denser it becomes, the less Life Force we can bring into the Material World, into the Material Existence. In other words, the denser or more material our world becomes, the less soul we can retain. With this knowledge, it is easy to see when “the emperor is naked”, as the primary source of higher dimensional contact is Telepathic Communication and Visions, as we do not share the same dimensional realities or physicality with Higher Dimensional Beings, therefore, those who claim to have met and talked with Galactics physically in our 3D reality, or even travelled with them, are lying... As I have said earlier, we will only be able to see and interact physically with them when we have been Rebirthed, when we share the same physicality.

Since, our primary source of establishing Galactic Contact is through visions that can be made to suit the expectation of the viewer, the possibility of deception is extremely high!

How do I know that I’m not receiving visions from the Reptilian Beings and unknowingly sharing another of their deceptions here? Because I do not only recognize their energy, but I also recognize the types and forms of visions they send and how those feel and look. I have daily attacks and visions from the Reptilian Beings that are increasing as the Divine Intervention moves forward, and as I’m writing this, they are trying to keep me from being able to sleep, by sending me vivid visions to wear me down, to stop me from finishing this work. The amount of visions I have to withstand from the darkness because of my mission here, would have been unbearable, if I wouldn’t have been protected by God and my Lyran Family, which means that no one else at this present have seen or had to endure these vicious attacks and visions, and survived. What I’m trying to say is that because of my mission here, I’ve seen things that would not otherwise be possible. The Reptilian Beings often produce fanciful visions of several different races of Galactic beings, and therefore many visions are not real. I have not only been attacked by the Reptilians but also by very Negative 4D Human Galactics (I have described some of them in Message 13, see page 70 below), that are recognizable as being real visions of the entity, as it reveals more of the entity’s energy and its location. In other words, exposing the space-time location of the entity, thereby, creating an energetic link between two different space-time realities, creating a connection that is felt to the entity, making Astral Travel to it possible. Remember that I have said that the Reptilian Beings can imitate almost anything, but they can't replicate someone's energy footprint. In simplicity, visions from a real entity feel and look different compared to a fake image of an imaginary entity. Ultimately, these things must be experienced to be fully understood and eventually when we are Rebirthed, we will all learn how to receive and send visions and pick up these subtle differences, as I cannot explain this any further with just words.

Examples of false Reptilian visions of imaginary Galactics, are the feminine Nordic blue eyed and long haired blond Pleiadians in blue tight suits with fair looks and sharp jaw lines, which are popular depictions within the New Age and channelled messages from the "Galactic Federation of Light" or con artists claiming to be in contact with a "Galactic Federation of Worlds". There is a real Nordic race of negative future humans, but they look very different, see page 70 below. The Reptilians have tried to get me to open up and receive messages by tricking me into thinking that the Pleiadians want to contact me. I have seen many of these false Pleadian visions produced by the Reptilians, and many other more or less fanciful false visions of insectoids or strange variations of Reptilian humanoids. The Reptilians have not sent me any visions of Arcturians, as they understand that I have figured it out, as this is not a humanoid form having God's footprint. If you take a look at nature, God's Kingdom, biological structures and expressions can be seen all through the Creation at the micro and the macro level. It is the fingerprint of the Creator, that same fingerprint can adapt to any change in conditions for life with the same blueprint. Remember God's code, the numbers darkness tries to affect. It is all part of the same fingerprint, the fingerprint of God. Therefore, no matter the universe or dimension this blueprint should be present, and if it is missing it is a creation of the antithesis. Because many biological expressions of the Creation repeat themselves in different life forms, like the Lyran Felines, the Lion People. If you look at a Grey it is clearly artificial in its expression, because it lacks the associated expressions consistent to the Divine code of Creation. Beings created by God or through him have God's code of the Creation visible, and if that is not visible, it is either created outside of the Creation, like the Greys, and as such created by a negative being, someone belonging to the antithesis, or it is not a real thing at all but a figure of imagination or an active deception. Understanding this, the absolute majority of humanoid forms in interstellar space are the Human Form with slight variations, this applies both to negative and positive beings. Having this in mind, it is of no surprise in our delusive world, that the most admired depiction of a Galactic species is the blue Arcturians who in all essence are a blue carbon copy of a Grey.

- Seventh, the Reptilian called REA told me explicitly that he was a "wraith" (see Message 15, page 76 below). He spoke in Swedish with me and the exact word he used was "vålnad" which translates into ghost or wraith in English. We know now he was neither, but instead an immortal ancient demonic being that we have come to know as a Reptilian. By telling us that he was a wraith or ghost when he in reality was something completely different, opens a window to the true understanding of the afterlife. It is clear that REA found pleasure in saying that he was a wraith, with this in mind, and knowing that Reptilians find pleasure in deception in the open, we see the esoteric principle of "hiding something in plain sight" displayed through this conversation with REA. From the conversation we can see that REA is applying this principle, taking great enjoyment in knowing all along that we will never realize that the truth is being told and is just in front of us. In the same manner the Secret Societies finds great pleasure in knowing the truth and hiding it in the open while having all the uninitiated believing in the constructed deception. In other words, REA is telling us that there are no wraiths, ghosts, and phantoms in the way we have subconsciously been taught, in the sense that they are lost souls that have become stray or errant between the worlds.

There are no lost souls between the worlds, as the souls are all taken care of by the Reptilian Beings and reincarnated back, and only a few escape having been able to see beyond the false light and found their way to God.

I'm enclosing a short excerpt from the conversation with REA, containing the sentences we just discussed (excerpt from Message 15, page 76 below):

“REA: I'm a wraith.

Me: As I understand it, so is apparitions from the fourth dimension; and are not good-hearted.

REA: We come from much further away. We are God's Light Soldiers. [...] We are your light soldiers, we come from so far away that you can't imagine it [...] We are your Soldiers of Light in this War of the Worlds.”

- Eighth, a majority of Psychics and Mediums only perceive and experience lost souls or ghosts, who they “help to move on” by telling the lost soul to go towards the light and where they usually report seeing the lost soul of the deceased being met by a relative or someone close that greets them, which stands in stark contrast to what is many times reported in Near Death Experiences (NDEs), where those who return instead report having met an Ascended Master, Buddha, Jesus, God, or some other authoritative figure.

We are dealing with a deviation between Classic Mediumship and NDEs. Let's set the presumption that the Medium has a psychic gift and really perceive what she says, and that the person saying that he had a near death experience is not imaginative by nature and gives a true account. Are one of them wrong, as their perception of what took place differ? No, they are both right. Why? Because they both had a preconceived notion and belief system about the afterlife. In the case of the person who experienced a near death experience, he had a preconceived notion and belief system about the afterlife when entering the transitional area between the worlds, well-known to these deceptive Reptilian Beings, who also know when he is going to arrive, as it is a pre-planned process. That is why the notion, that “it is not your time yet”, that many report after having a near death experience, is not something that is said to comfort us when we have death anxiety, as we understandably usually choose to perceive it, but is said because there is an actual time set for when we return to be reincarnated back to a new life. This preconceived notion the individual has about the afterlife is recognized and well-known by these immortal ancient beings and a tailored reception is made. In the case of the Medium, she is on ground of her preconceived notion and belief system about the afterlife led to believe that she is helping a lost soul to go towards the light, when instead she as a Medium is being used by these entities to spread a false understanding of the afterlife, giving the impression that we can become lost between the worlds and become a phantom or a ghost, because we made the mistake of not going into the light in time. The fear that our soul could go astray, wandering forever lost between the worlds as a phantom, until finally, a Medium or “Spirit Guide” found our lost soul and could help guide it towards the light. The Medium feels she did something good, and the Reptilians has instilled fear and pre-conditioned us to, without reflection, go towards the light, as we fear to become lost lonely wandering souls, lost between the worlds for an eternity if someone does not come and guide us back to the light.

We can never become lost, if we escape the captivating and enchanting white light of the Astral world, we will find our way to God.

The Medium and the person who experienced a near death experience are both right because they both had a pre-conditioned understanding of the afterlife and have not yet experienced the true nature of our reality, as they never truly questioned what they experienced, since it would require questioning where the core of their own beliefs come from, that is the foundation for their identity.

- Ninth, we have the seemingly limited consciousness of the dead calling for attention, many times giving the impression that they want to say “I’m still here, I still exist” by sending visions from their life, or how they died, or how their decomposed body looks today.

This is how my psychic experiences started in my early twenties with messages and visions from deceased people I had never met or known before when they were alive. Which is the traditional experience reported by most classic mediums. I, like them, thought this was what I was experiencing from the “other side”, and because of my preconceived beliefs took to my heart as the truth.

The Key to this is the limited consciousness of these lost souls, ghost, or phantoms. If we understand that we consist of three parts: Soul, Spirit, and God, where the Soul is incarnated from the Spirit into the material body, we will understand the problem with these lost souls limited consciousness and fixation with their last material life experience. I say limited, because any message or conversation is most often centered around their last life experience, and many times fragmented or a bit chaotic, and bear no evidence of the higher knowledge that is within their Spirit. Which means that these are either souls who are disconnected from Spirit, and thereby from God and the Creation, or not human souls at all but something else. As I have said previously, we cannot get lost between the worlds when we are in our Spirit Body, we can only get captured and recycled. In Spirit Form we can instantly travel wherever we so desire, through dimensions and even time, as time no longer exists in a linear form within the transitional plane or dimensions above or around it, but consists of non-linear space-time.

The only thing that can exist outside of Spirit, God and the Creation: is the antithesis or souls actively disconnected from their Spirit, souls who signed over their soul. This is the reason for the limited consciousness of the souls in Astral Eden and their fixation with their last incarnated life experience, because they have actively been dislocated from their Spirit and are only their limited Soul Consciousness as the Soul is a small part of the Spirit.

We are nearing the end of this part about “Spirit Guides” and the true understanding of the Afterlife. It has been a complex task to explain its different components and to show the experiences that uncover their true nature.

I also want to tell you that I had divine guidance from God, as I did not understand this fully before writing this, though many pieces had already fallen into place. I have been severely attacked these last weeks, by the ancient demonic beings controlling our world from the unseen, unknown to humanity as a whole, a humanity believing in the reality and power of the material as the sole solution to this power grab from the darkness, not realizing that a Spiritual entrapment of the human soul has led us into embracing a world created by the antithesis, a situation where no solution in the material world of atoms can be found, as we are dealing with a strictly spiritual problem... an ancient war, a war of the human soul, a Spiritual War that finally is becoming visible in our reality, where no material solution can solve the human predicament, but only God can, only God can do what needs to be done.

Top image: I have made a two-dimensional representation of God, Spirit, and our Soul to counteract the top-down representation of God that we meet everywhere.

Bottom image: Turn the top image above to the side and the side view is straight from your heart as showed in this bottom image. Our Soul is anchored at the heart to our physical bodies with a thread that is the last thing that breaks off as the Soul leaves the body when we die.

Something I want to clarify, is that there are Spirit Beings in higher dimensions, we ourselves are spirit beings and have a Spirit Body when we leave our material bodies. However, our reality is controlled from the Astral World by these ancient immortal beings, and it is therefore very difficult for a Benevolent Higher Dimensional Spirit Being to reach or visit us, and because of this it is very rare that they do, as it requires a coordinated effort to make contact. We are truly in a Spiritual Prison that we have come to accept as life. We have no possibility to protect ourselves against these ancient Reptilian Beings, if we try to make contact with Higher Worlds. The Reptilian Beings do not always seem evil at first glance, as their primary goal is to make us willing to live the life they created for us, as they need our energy, therefore they may at times comfort us, so we find the will and motivation to stand the world they created for us. Reason being, that if we keep returning because we lack will to live, we are not producing the energies required; “it’s a matter of practicality”, as they like to say. When you hear someone who experienced a Near Death Experience (NDE) say they met a “Spirit Guide” or any other being who told them “it is not your time yet”, that person has spoken to a Reptilian Being, as will become clear here.

Before we continue, I first want to mention something about time and our lifespan. Linear-time and a short lifespan are a necessity for their control system to work, the shorter the life the more precious the time, and the more efficient we work, as our prime to build a career and life is short, and we are always told that we are old prematurely to heighten this feeling. This leads to the result that we do not think about who controls us, if there is a divine, or what happens after death. It is by design. It is part of the Reptilian control to keep our lifespan short. If our lifespan becomes too long, the risk increases that we will wake up and see through the deception, and the risk for cross pollination between age groups of history, knowledge, and information about our reality, increases.

We are assigned our life-experience by the Reptilian Beings to generate the Life Energy necessary for their world, therefore when they say it is not your time yet it means you are either useful for something or you are still able to fulfil your role and don’t need a new life assigned to you out of pure efficiency. When I was dying of Covid – don’t ask me how I got so ill, no one else around me did – and was not allowed to go to the hospital despite not being able to breathe, I received a visit from a female “Spirit Being”, as I thought then. I asked who she was, and she told me that she was a Valkyrie. Believing I was dying, I naturally asked her, being a Valkyrie, “am I going to die, is this it, is this all my life will be?” She answered, “it is not your time yet”, that is how I know and with all the experience I have acquired by now, there is absolutely no doubt that she was a Reptilian. By the way, if I have not mentioned it yet, they are genderless, and any female attributes are part of their deceptive armoury of tools at their disposal.

If you really think about it for a second, what do these “Spirit Guides” really do? They tell us what we want to hear! Remember, that when we leave this plane of existence and go into the white light, we will meet what we believe in.

The entity in this message below, calling herself Julia Mito was likely a Negative Human from the 4D, delivering this message at the request of the Reptilians. Julia Mito talks about the New Age concept of “Ascension”, but as has become clear, we will not Ascend as we will be Reborned. The darkness calls it Ascension to mislead us from the true word of God. I’ll speak more about who the Negative Humans from the 4D are in the next message, No. 13.

Message:

>> Julia Mito:

- You have now ascended, and we follow you with excitement.
We understand that you don't feel anything yet, but you will discover that you have new abilities.
It is a process for you to discover your new possibilities and abilities.
You will learn old knowledge and gain access to what you already knew before you came here.
All the limitations you have been living with ends now. <<

From: “Spirit Guide” from the Family of Light, most likely a Negative 4D Human under the false pretence as a Benevolent Spirit Being.

Comment:

The idea of a “Family of Light” or a “Galactic Federation of Light” is cherished by various Spiritual Influencers within the New Age, and those claiming to have Galactic Contact, usually with the Pleiadians. The very first time I heard about the “Family of Light” was from a “Guide” calling herself Tina. She stayed around only for a few weeks, if my memory serves me well, before another “Guide” calling herself Julia Mito showed up a time after. The communication from both of them were more human and more fluent which means they could have been Humans either from Earth or more likely Negative Humans from the 4D, in other words Negative Galactics. I have been simultaneously attacked many times by Negative Humans and Reptilians from the 4D. The majority of the Negative Humans in the 4D look like us, and in most cases, they prefer to dress in black or dark grey colours. They do not like to wear vibrant colours which tells us a bit about their level of consciousness.

I have seen many forms of Negative Galactics during the attacks I have sustained, having visions from and with them. I will speak more extensively about them at another time, but I will still give some examples here of some of the differences in appearance between them and us. One kind is a bit more compact and wider than us and have completely black eyes with no whites of eyes, they are extremely negative and are able to induce emotions of fear, death anxiety, and horror just like the Reptilians. Another type is the very muscular blond Nordics who almost always dress in black. They are un-naturally muscular and look very much like bodybuilders on hormone supplements with oversized jaws and sharp facial lines. They have a very artificial augmented appearance, and do not possess the psychic powers of the Reptilians or of the Negative 4D Humans lacking the white of eyes. Many of them have a German Nordic look and at a couple of occasions I had visions with them wearing hiking clothes similar to German clothing from the 1940s. There are many other types of Negative Galactics, but these are the ones I had most attacks and visions from.

I should also mention that ALL Negative Human Galactics from the 4D are involved in magic practices. There is a third kind that attacked me more successfully for a longer time than the groups mentioned previously, whose entire culture seems to evolve around highly advanced magic, and where woman have the function as high priestesses. This third type is very pale, and very white with black straight hair, and dresses only in black, I have never seen them in any other colour. All the men have medium to long black hair, and some of their teenagers have what I would describe as Punk style spiky hair. When these Negative Galactics attack me, I see them in vivid and very strong visions, they always move their hands and fingers casting spells while uttering magic rhymes. The most advanced magicians within this group are women who wear black silk dresses with an old type of high cylindrical hat, to be exact a medieval long truncated hennin, with a knitted black veil attached on the top, covering the face. These women, high priestesses look very much alike the black dressed female magicians being portrayed in the new version of the movie Dune.

It seems very likely that the Deep State has knowledge about these Negative Humans from the 4D and, though I seldom look at movies these days, that the Deep State sometimes reveal their occult and extra-terrestrial knowledge “in plain sight” through these movies. Another example of this, is the symbol of the Lyran Interstellar Starfleet that the Lyrans wear on the left side of their chest, representing the Lyran Constellation. A symbol I was shown in a vision with Lyran Woman. It's quite obviously the template for the Star Trek logo in the popular movie series from 1968. Though, the Star Trek logo is turned upside down (as is the US Space Force patch also, by the way) in the same manner as the cross is turned upside down by the Satanic Secret Societies, showcasing the antithesis principle within the Occult Secret Societies. Lyran Woman once told me that she appreciates when I use the word "Interstellar" to describe the Lyran Starfleet, which again is a nod to the movie series Star Trek. The inside of the Lyran ships also look similar to the bridge in Star Trek but is centered to the side of the ship, and is not symmetrically situated in the middle of the ship, as in the movie series. I recently watched the original movie series from 1968 and many nods to the truth in the two first season are subconsciously disclosed, revealing the movie series connection to the Secret Societies.

From the Negative Entity's message below, we can draw many conclusions, we see Light Worship, Moon Worship and the search for material possessions. We can see that the Negative Entities are actively trying to draw me into "Light Worship" by referring to themselves as being from "the Family of Light", portraying to be from the Divine. It's not hard either to deduct that the New Age movement ultimately have received its belief system and knowledge from these Negative Entities through the Esoteric and Occult Societies, for example, those formed by Helena Blavatsky, and Alice Bailey who later coined the term "the New Age". The Moon is one of the main celestial objects worshiped by the Secret and Occult Societies besides Saturn and Jupiter, and is an intricate part in magic rituals and spell casting. We see "Moon Worship" among those who worship the antithesis, that is; those who worship Baal, Moloch, and other representations of Satan. The reference to "abundance" being the key reveals their fixation with material possessions, as an object of temptation in the dealings with humans who chosen to worship and obey them for personal gain, power, and control. The Negative Entity claims that they are protecting me and that fact cannot be changed "by them", clearly referring to my Lyran Family. Just another layer of lies I had to get through to find the truth, which also explains why the Reptilian, REA could get so close to me before I understood how it all was connected.

Message:

>> "Spirit Guide":

- Family of light will begin a process with you on the next full moon (21 Sept, Tuesday).
You are protected, nothing can alter your path now, you have divine protection that can not be altered by them.
There is nothing they can do to hinder you now.
Abundance is the key; you will have all that you require, and nothing will be missed. <<

Message 14: 2021-09-09

From: “Galactic”, a Reptilian under the false pretence as a Benevolent Galactic Being.

Comment:

In this message below, the Reptilian Beings are trying to change and fragment our understanding of the truth in a deeply profound and irrevocable way, by declaring that dark and light will “join each other and merge into one, where the dark will be extinguished by the light”.

If we accept this to be the truth, we will never untangle the web of lies keeping us in the darkness, while we blind folded believe we see the light.

We are not merging into one with the darkness, we are actually leaving them behind and entering a higher divine reality, our true origin, Heaven on Earth, God’s Kingdom that has always existed and that has always been. We are leaving our deceptive false reality; the false light matrix created by the demonic beings known throughout the ages as demons but who we today know as Reptilians. We will leave, and only those demonic negative beings that can sustain life without us will remain, as the majority will perish when we are Rebirthed.

They have told me many, many times that “you are destroying our world” and with “our world” they do not only mean their Astral realm, but the whole parasitic symbiosis between our world and theirs, created by these demonic beings with the help of power hungry, greedy humans who throughout history has summoned these demonic entities to secure power, prosperity, and knowledge.

The New Age concept of merging with the darkness is a thought construct coming directly from the Astral. As long as we have a physical body, for the brief moment we are within the material realm, no matter in which density or space-time, regardless of how that material world may look like, however, malleable that world may be, there must be two opposites: a (+) plus and a (-) minus, □light and ■dark, (333) good and (666) evil, to create our material experience. We can never completely extinguish the darkness as it is inherent in creating the material experience.

What the Divine truly is at its essence is balance and harmony, because in balance and harmony all things can be created, as any extreme in any direction locks us into a world that cannot change, a world that will become frozen in time, a world that eventually will slowly die.

This is why perfection is not the aim within the Creation as once achieved it has become its ultimate expression and cannot attain any further positive change but only regression. The darkness seek perfection, and the ultimate expression as an arrogance of the individual which leads them in their quest into a dead world, as perfection will not survive the Creation whose intention is life and life is changeable, flowing, and dynamic, it never stops alternating and changing, making attaining perfection impossible. This inherent eternal change within the Creation means that even if darkness grows at times and becomes strong, ultimately it is destroyed by the Creation itself, since any energy structure viable to sustain life outside the Creation will eventually implode and be destroyed. This inevitable natural process is what the demonic beings are trying to push forward in time or stop, as they know the energy structure providing their necessary life support system which has enabled them to create a world without the Life Force Energy from the Creation, will be ripped away from under their feet. They will still attempt, no matter the cost, to detach us from God's Creation by pulling us further into the material existence by trying to control the process of the Creation itself, by trying to become the masters of the Creation. This is done by changing and manipulating all things created by God, the plants, the animals, and us humans. Making all and everything artificial around us. Forcing us to accept their Transhumanist world. In the words of Klaus Schwab and his World Economic Forum: "You will own nothing, and you will be happy". Don't understand me wrong the Creation itself is the perfection, a perfection always changing, always moving, always altering, a perfection only the consciousness of God can create.

Lyran Man: “[...] you will meet us soon, me and the girl you’ve been seeing in your visions” (May 28, 2022, see page 4 in the Supplement). This is a representation of the young human Lyran girl that Lyran Man refers to in the quote. She showed me how to battle magic and psychic attacks from the Reptilian Beings and the magicians of the Satanic Luciferian Cabal. It is a mental battle with psychic powers in strong visions, and if a battle is lost, the attacker can get closer in space-time and inflict more intense physical pain, as the magic attaches to the nervous system. The representation shows her overall appearance, attitude, and the settings I saw her in, however, her face is generic in the image.

In this perfect balance of all things our expression of our soul consciousness in the material can take place. We live and experience because we want to, not because something must be attained, not because of some ultimate goal. All knowledge and understanding that ever was and will ever be is already within God. The purpose of God is life.

The only way to completely avoid the antithesis that is the darkness and the evil, is to not enter the material world at all. And, for those Souls having a weak Life Force within them this could be a choice. To reject the material world because we do not manage the dynamic inherent in the material experience of the thesis (light, good, love) and the antithesis (dark, evil, hate), is a great loss and a misunderstanding, because we grow stronger spiritually from our life experiences, strengthening our own Life Force within and our will to live and to experience. Though seemingly obvious, but many seem to forget, and embark on a quest to become holy by claiming to have become closer to God in some way or form, and through it becoming complete or holy as an individual, thereby singling themselves out from others. These "Pharisees" have accomplished nothing but showing their arrogance and their lack of understanding of what life really is. We are all part of God. We are all truly, truly equal. We are all the same. It is only within the material world we can physically experience all things and feel and sense them by touch, smell, and taste. These things might seem simple but when we don't have them, we long for them. The stronger our Spirit and Soul is, the stronger our will to live and experience will become. To love life, is to love God.

The notion that we will become one with the darkness as the light will extinguish it, is aimed to make us draw the conclusion that "there is no reason to take a stand against evil, as there is no evil in the real sense, because we are all one and we only play different roles in order for us to learn from each other so that when we learned enough by reincarnating here over and over again, eventually, God will bring us back to become one again with him as he needs to experience himself in different roles to grow". NO!!! The deception in this belief being spread and heavily promoted everywhere through the New Age movement, originally acquired from Eastern Religions, reformed and used to deceive by the same people that is trying to destroy and annihilate us and form the New World Order, is beyond comprehension.

Those Souls that have permanently and irrevocably left by completely detaching themselves from the Life Force of the Creation emanating from God, thereby left the origin of all life, and evolved during a very long, long time into these depraved and distorted Negative Spiritual Beings who must sip from our Life Force Energy to sustain life, will perish when the external life support system provided by us is removed. This is the reason why these beings are incapable of feeling love and compassion for anyone, why their consciousness measure everything in quantities and numbers, because they are incapable of feeling pure unconditional love. They act purely on motivation caused by wants and needs, which has evolved into a mastery of trickery and deceit. When we are brought back by God through a Spiritual Rebirth, we leave this plane of existence in physical form with our bodies intact. From this point we will no longer generate the necessary Life Force Energy these beings must have to sustain life.

We have a divine duty to take a stand against the evil, the injustice, and the expanding darkness we see growing around us. Those that will not, have not achieved what is spiritually required to be able to pass through the Astral World when we are brought back by God. The impression given from the spiritual movement invented by and heavily promoted by the people who are behind the implementation of the New World Order, that it is not necessary to take a stand against the evil and fight back as “we are one”, is a predictive programming of the mind in order for those being deceived to accept the control exercised over them, for them to accept not receiving any answers, and finally and most importantly, for them to accept the white light in the Astral as being the Divine without questioning, without sensing or feeling if it is really so. All intended to make us accept our faith to be brought back here for a never-ending eternity, never getting any wiser, thereby willingly and wholeheartedly feeding their system. It’s time you understand where we really are, and what is really going on.

We see another example here in the message below, of how these Reptilian Beings mix divine truth with deception, by stating this very beautiful divine and true statement: “At the present, life has a dark side and a light side for us to choose. With a higher consciousness there is a line in the middle where absolute divine truth lies”. But then ties it all together with the deception proclaiming we will “merge into one”. We are not joining or merging into one, we are leaving the world created by them to once again be free as God intended for us. That is what we are doing.

Message:

>> “Galactic”:

- At the present, life has a dark side and a light side for us to choose.
With a higher consciousness there is a line in the middle where absolute divine truth lies.
These two sides of life are going to join each other and merge into one, where the dark will be extinguished by the light. <<

From: REA the Soldier of Light, a Reptilian under the false pretence as a Benevolent Higher Dimensional Spirit Being.

Comment:

The message below is from the first time I encountered REA, a Reptilian who told me that he was a Spirit Being, calling himself a “Soldier of Light” (see image on page 25 above). When he first appeared, he was fully present in my home but I neither saw him nor had any visions with him until 6 months later, when the Reptilians tried to have him take over my body with the help of the Deep State, who in essence is the Satanic Luciferian Cabal. You will find the full story about REA on my YouTube Channel, this is just an overview of what happened, and the first time our full conversation is published and can be looked upon. However, I recommend the following video for a better understanding:

REA the Reptilian & the 5000 Light Soldiers. GAR the Tall Grey Alien:

<https://youtu.be/ECpT4GbQYnc?si=Ues6XJSagQzyDU2q>

On August 6th, 2021, I was tricked to go up a mountain to a place I call the Home of the Gods, an old Viking cult place, for an expected meeting with the Galactics, face to face, for the first time. Some hours before, a Reptilian pretending to be the Magician (a Female Spirit Being that had been sent to protect me) handed over a dark entity calling himself GAR, who told me that the Galactics wanted to meet me. He gave me a bad feeling when I listened to him, as he had a very strong, dry and demanding voice but I was so tired of all the strange contacts from the Spirit World, and all the beings contacting me saying that they were my “Spirit Guides”. It had been very chaotic at this point, and I was receiving messages from all over the place, and I still didn’t understand why it was occurring. I had come to a point where I honestly didn’t care anymore; I just wanted some answers even if I knew it was risky. Therefore, against my better judgment, I chose to ignore all the red flags. This was of course a major mistake, as I after this incident became completely in the hands of the Reptilians, who could block out the recent contact attempts made by my Lyran Family at the time, and control all communication with me.

Feeling a little bit eerie, I went up the mountain to the old Viking ground I call Home of the Gods and I sat there for two hours and waited, from 12 to 2 pm. After almost two hours of waiting and nothing happening, I was prepared to give up, see it as a lost cause and go home. Then out of nowhere, I saw a large dark cloud quickly approaching, descending and at the same time growing in size very fast and becoming black, until it appeared to cover the whole horizon, and without warning the whole line of the horizon came down with it, to then as suddenly as it had appeared, regain its place a few kilometres away over the water. The actual line of the horizon came down at least 200 to 300 ft. to then return in an instance. It hadn’t been a vision; it had been completely real.

Standing there on the cliff, I tried to understand what I’ve just experienced, and I remembered the message about “squashing energies to get through and reach our world” (see, Message 5 above) and thought, as I still do today, they must have squashed together two dimensions until they were sufficiently close for them to try to get through, and enter our reality. By the way if I haven’t already mentioned this the Lyrans do not move interdimensionally like this and do not need this highly energy-consuming process to get here, and neither do the Reptilians, however, the Greys seem to have to do so. At an earlier time, a Reptilian named KYO had told me about this process, and knowing that the Reptilians are sending small Greys, that are most likely biological robots, as probes into our reality, it was probably the small Greys process to reach our reality he described.

As the cloud and lining of the horizon was back in its original place and everything seemed to be back to normal, I looked up and saw a very, very low white cloud above me in an otherwise almost clear sky, it was so low it felt like I could reach up and touch it, and it had a perfect round hole in the middle, directly over my head. I had never seen anything like that before, not even as a pilot. It was too perfect to be normal and something must have caused it. I've later read that these holes, apparently are common during UFO sightings. I realized that I had been lucky that nothing serious had happened, and decided it was best to leave before something else occurred. After this incident it became completely quiet around me, and the "Spirit Guides" and Galactic Contact all disappeared without a trace. Shortly, thereafter REA appeared introducing himself as "REA like in realization".

Just before REA appeared I had a very strong vision of a negative being, a brown coloured man with a shaved bald head and a large black moustache. He looked human but he had a 3rd eye in the middle of his forehead, it was shining and sparkling in red and yellow. The 3rd eye in the forehead seemed to have an eye lid, as it looked like he could close it. This negative being did not look very pleasant, it looked like a very evil being, and I started to receive very dark and negative communications from the Astral World from him that sent me chills. At this point REA suddenly appeared for the first time and came in and interrupted the entity, and this is the conversation between me and REA that followed:

Message:

>> REA:

- The man you saw was a low frequency Galactic who is very old and is very far away from our galaxy, they are called TAL.

Me:

- Where are you from?
Why does this Galactic want to get to me?
Who are the Galactics I have talked to before you appeared?

REA:

- The long ones want you well, you are linked with them, we can tell you what we are allowed to and what we want, but you lack understanding of how our world works. We already know where you're heading, but if we tell you something, it can affect and change you, a life told is a life ruined, but we can say this anyway: I'm a wraith.

Me:

- As I understand it, so is apparitions from the fourth dimension; and are not good-hearted.

REA:

- We come from much further away.

We are God's Light Soldiers, and you are our son.

Remember what they told you (from the Astral world) "You are destroying our world!"

The Galactic you saw cannot reach you and poses no danger, he is very far from you and has no way to get here.

Me:

- What has happened to the Magician from the Home of the Gods?

REA:

- She is very afraid after what happened and is hiding here.

There came out very dark entities that she couldn't handle.

We are your light soldiers, we come from so far away that you can't imagine it, you asked for help and that's why I'm here.

We are your Soldiers of Light in this War of the Worlds. <<

Comment:

This is a further example of how the Reptilians weave their web of lies by taking true statements and adjusting or slightly altering them so the true purpose cannot be recognized though being right in front of the viewer “in plain sight”. Here we have “Light Worship” placed in an otherwise true and divine sentence. The Reptilians will never, if not forced to, tell an outright lie as telling the truth in a deceptive way is much more effective, since it hides the truth, right in front of your eyes. A pure lie only works as long as it is not questioned but a deceptive truth can be questioned, as it is much harder to prove it wrong, especially in the eyes of others. This is also the modus operandi of the Secret Occult Societies, in other words the Deep State.

In its simplest definition, “Light Worship” is a predictive programming so the deceptive beings in the Astral World may claim they are God, when we are between worlds and have left the material behind us. If we only believe in what we see, and not in what we can sense and what we can feel, we will be deceived, because sensing and feeling something is a much more powerful way of finding and establishing the truth. We will be lost, and in the Astral we will truly be lost, if we have not trained to feel and sense the truth. Remember this:

God does not need to speak, God does not need to tell you he is God, God does not need to show you he is God. Those who need to show their magic or splendour to prove who they are, are not God. Those who need to tell you who they are, are not God. They are Reptilians.

Message 17: 2021-10-13

From: Vielo, most likely a Small Grey under the false pretence as a Benevolent Galactic Being.

Comment:

I was contacted by Vielo only once, and I remember him being very different from any of the other contacts I had received prior to that. He had a submissive way about him, and gave the impression that he was afraid to make a mistake while contacting me that could be punishable by a superior in the chain of command. This can be sensed in the following sentence: “people like me have not been allowed to contact you”. As I have said previously here, in the beginning I was trying to find out why I was being contacted and also to establish who these entities really were. My first assumption was that they were either Spirits or Interdimensional Beings from other dimensional realities, popularly called “Galactics”. Thanks to my psychic abilities that developed in my early twenties, I already had extensive knowledge of communications from what I then believed to be Spirits from the Spirit World. However, I have now come to understand that these “Spirits”, how incredibly it might sound, are actually not the Souls of deceased people, which is the general assumption, but Reptilian Beings from the Astral realm playing tricks with us, to create a predetermined perception of the afterlife, the perception that Souls by not going into the light, becomes ghosts and lost between worlds.

As a consequence of the two UFO encounters, I had experienced early on - the first more than 5 years ago while flying in the traffic circuit at the airport, and the second when the Small Greys visited my home 2 years later - I thought that these messages and contact attempts were from the Greys. It felt a bit uncomfortable since it was hard to think of these beings as good or benevolent, especially after I had experienced the intense vision with the Small Grey when the Greys visited my home. However, in the beginning I tried to have an open mind, as the messages seemed to imply I myself had sent them here in some future life, that now was in my past. But I didn't like the idea and that was one of the reasons why I took some risks trying to get to the bottom of why they had contacted me. After a while it became more and more evident that these early contacts were not Benevolent Higher Dimensional Beings but negative entities. I know now without a doubt that all these 18 messages presented here, were initiated entirely by the Reptilians, and in a few cases relayed through the Small Greys, or forwarded with the help of the Negative 4D Humans from another space-time. The Small Greys, who are small biological robots, had been sent here by the Reptilians as probes, since they, unlike the interdimensional Reptilian Beings, can materialise, and therefore take physical shape and become visible in our reality. This means that the Small Greys can be seen here in our reality and make physical contact and do work here for the Reptilian control structure. In any event, no matter who Vielo really was, it is quite clear at least that he had contacted me on behalf of the Reptilians.

When receiving this message below, I've already been contacted by my Lyran Family, but we had only had a few uninterrupted communications with each other, and I didn't fully understand who they were yet. I was still looking for answers, however, this far into my journey I had learned that trying to reach out myself in search for divine or galactic contact in order to get some answers, only resulted in contact with negative entities, and I had become more and more cautious with whom I answered when I was contacted. After REA had appeared I believed that I was somewhat protected, as I was being left alone by the negative entities for 6 months and could once again concentrate on my studies, I had even closed down my psychic ability. I was completely unaware at the time, that my Lyran Family had been blocked out by the Reptilians, and I did not understand that I was fully in the hands of the Reptilians and under their control, while they were planning to possess me when the time was right.

All divine or higher dimensional communication are not alike. My own attempts to make contact in the beginning, in an effort to receive some answers, was done through relaxing deeply since it opens us up to the metaphysical plane, this is the process of channelling. It is very dangerous and will with absolute certainty lead to a connection with an entity from the Astral World, there is no exception to this! No matter what they say, anyone who needs to relax or meditate to connect and be able to receive communication, will be connecting to and speaking to an Astral Entity, which in the majority of cases will be a Reptilian Being.

The Reptilians did exercises with me, training me to send and read text by producing mental pictures of white letters on a black background, they were teaching me to send and receive visions of words as an addition to the channelled voice communication to strengthen my ability. Receiving back, striped images with black and white letters, as shown on the eBook cover of this work. The Reptilians also had me repeating number sequences to strengthen the contact in order to be able to start a communication, or strengthen a weak one, much the same process as tuning in a radio to the right frequency of a particular station. This is the worst anyone can do, as any contact attempt made by us here in our 3D space-time opens us up to the closest dimension to us, the 4D, in other words the Astral World. In particular so, if the contact attempts take place during deep meditation or deep relaxation, in other words through channelling. Everyone, if spending enough time meditating deeply and opening up; over time will eventually connect and begin channelling messages from, you guessed right, the Astral World...

Channelling only requires intent to connect and some training to open up by the use of deep relaxation, and requires very little psychic or telepathic ability. Once connected with an entity, the entity itself will help to strengthen the contact. That is why so many who have been sucked into the New Age movement, by listening to channelled messages from entities, or through prolonged deep mass meditations, has connected with and strengthen their contact with the Astral World and why many, I'm sorry to say, have entity attachments because of this, and are without realizing it very influenced by these Astral Energies. By the way, entity attachments are not the same as possessions. Attachments take place when an entity affects a person with his energy, inducing feelings and planting thoughts, while having no interest in taking over the victim's body, however they can choose to walk into the person's Physical body, as it might please them, if they get close enough in space-time. Possessions are when the entity permanently fuses with the victim's Astral Body. This requires magic that can release a large amount of energy, and must, to my knowledge thus far, be initiated by humans here in our world with the aid of the Reptilian Beings, to be able to pinpoint the victim precisely enough in time and space, to be successful.

The familiar Channellers who we all recognize, who have become big influencers within the New Age movement with their channelled messages from the Pleiadians, the Arcturians, and others that we encounter on various platforms, are channelling Astral Entities from the 4D, and not Benevolent Higher Dimensional Beings. This is evident even for those that haven't yet experienced their own higher dimensional contact, by just comparing these Reptilian messages presented here with these well-known Channellers' messages. We will all eventually acquire the ability to transmit and receive communication from higher dimensions. The most vicious reactions, and those most hateful to my message has come from those listening regularly to Channellers and performing deep meditations, which has opened them up spiritually and mentally to the 4D and strengthen their soul's connection to these Astral Energies.

It is very difficult for us to contact the Divine by ourselves, and if we try, we will without question end up in the Astral plane, the only ones that can contact us with any degree of certainty is the Higher Dimensional Beings from the Divine themselves, like my Lyran Family.

This of course means, that we still have to understand and learn how to discern who or what has contacted us. A Benevolent Higher Dimensional Being can speak to anyone Telepathically, and can both hear and listen as we speak out loud or quietly in our minds. There are no implants in real interdimensional communication, despite so popularly claimed by many charlatans, not even the Greys need such things to communicate Telepathically, in the same way as Channellers don't need implants to channel entities but do it naturally. There are no implants!

If we receive Divine Contact from Higher Dimensional Beings far away from us in space-time where they can't fully control the communication themselves, Telepathic Communication is the safest way because it is done awake and conscious through psychic and telepathic advanced ability, usually, as I can only speak for myself in this regard, due to a natural innate ability. However, as I have said before, we will all eventually acquire this ability when each and every one of us are Rebirthed. By being clear and awake someone who performs a Telepathic Communication has not opened up to the Astral Realm, and is therefore less visible and can, because of the innate ability create a clearer contact requiring less energy to be transmitted, becoming even further concealed to the Astral Realm. However, if the Reptilians are already watching someone they can still listen in on the conversation, so nothing is completely safe.

This is very important! The only thing the Reptilians can't replicate or imitate is our energy footprint, and once we learn to recognize the energy of someone, they can no longer deceive us. I have learned to read the Lyrans energy footprint with great certainty now, and this has made the Reptilians more open to me, as they have failed time and time again to deceive me, nevertheless, I'm still careful, especially, if the contact is far away in space-time and therefore has low energy, because then the energy footprint will also be less pronounced. If you want to know more about Channellings and its associated dangers, please watch my video series in 3 parts, explaining this further:

https://youtube.com/playlist?list=PL7\_xaX-XvZap36Qer3c1adzgQUk4bLo\_T&si=i8pXUrS6HFvyKWR8.

Although, at the time of receiving this message below, I was questioning what REA had told me, I was finally left alone for six months and could study in peace, like never before, to finish my Airline Traffic Pilot License (ATPL). I have never studied with such an ease. I didn't fail a single test during this period whereas everything before had been a fight and a struggle, and had required much more energy to accomplish. Despite the warning signs, I decided to put my search for answers aside for the time being, as I finally was left alone and could concentrate fully on finishing my studies. Which is why people choose to join the Secret Societies and begin to worship these entities, as everything they undertake after that goes with ease with the help of these beings. It will be a very hard realisation for many to realize that we truly do not possess free will in this reality, as these immortal Reptilian Beings truly control our world, and our will is limited to what suit their control system exerted from the 4D. After the end of this six-month period of being left alone by the entities, sometime in March 2022, the Reptilians attacked me, and REA tried to possess me, but he was only able to attach himself to my Spirit Body, and could not fully take over my Physical Body. My Lyran Family fought the Reptilians for four weeks and finally managed to save me, and during that time, I learned who I am, and why all of this had happened to me. I was finally safe.

I recommend listening to my video series on YouTube “My Spiritual Journey to Lyra”, as many things have been left out here, to keep this within a reasonable length:

https://youtube.com/playlist?list=PL7\_xaX-XvZapEzI6hp6GZejTH0SRkVT47&si=qZbu2xNsmTmPWHRa,

From looking at the Reptilian messages, we see that number 9 is very important to them, as it keep showing up in several messages, and so is the planet Jupiter, also mentioned several times. Celestial bodies like Saturn, Jupiter, and the Moon are central in the esoteric belief systems of Luciferianism, and Satanism, for example, but I will not go deeper into that here. For those interested, it is something that can be further looked into, for a better understanding of the Secret Societies, and of how the control; exercised spiritually and physically from the 4D, attaches to the Human control structure here on Earth.

I want to mention here, that I’m fully aware of that it can be easier to believe a lie than to believe the truth, because the truth is very hard and its realisation means a final understanding of the human predicament, the realization that we can trust nothing in this reality anymore, a reality controlled by negative humans who ultimately are under the control of and slaves to these negative entities from the 4D. The awareness of that everything in our world is made to suit the parasitic symbiosis between our world and the power structure in the 4D. We are being controlled by the Astral World which many do not want to believe or take in, and it penetrates everything and all things in our society and culture, and the reason why news, or information doesn’t solve the puzzle or brings a solution to the problem, or why demonstrating, or resisting no longer is enough to free us from these chains we are forced to carry. This very old Spiritual War in Heaven for the Souls of mankind, this old Galactic War that has always been, is now surfacing in our reality, and we are forced to open our eyes to new ways of seeing and perceiving reality. The Reptilians will do everything they can to win, they will need more pain and suffering from us to generate the necessary energies required to fight the Divine Forces of God. They will tell their human subjects, the Elite, to enforce their will, and the angrier they can make us by dividing us and setting us up against each other, the more they can make us suffer by limiting our freedoms and starting wars, the more they can make us hate by setting nations against nations and men against men; the more they grow and the stronger they become.

This is the reason why everything is escalating around us and will continue to do so until God intervenes, and everyone will learn the truth.

Lastly, we see another attempt to lead me astray and into the New Age “Ascension path” to alter my understanding of the message from the Divine about the “Spiritual Rebirth of Humanity”. They also mention the “New World” that awaits us, which shows us how aware these entities are of God’s plan, and how they are twisting the truth in an effort to make us want the wrong thing, unintentionally bringing forward their world instead of God’s. The last sentence of the message stating that “matter will become mobile and more dynamic and it will not be fixed like now, you will be able to physically affect it”, is interesting as it actually seems to describe their own world, the Astral World more than anything. The Lyrans have not told me how malleable their world is, but I sense from my visions with them, that it is a physical world like ours but controlled by another set of physical laws. The Lyran Woman has told us this about their world: “Our world is different from yours; it is beautiful and absolute, it can give and it can take” (see Supplement page 3, below).

He then asks me several times to remember his name, and continues:

- You will evolve, you will have an extended life, it will be a wonderful life, everything that you want to achieve will be possible, you will be very happy.
Ascension is tough but there is no other way to do it, don't get mad if you are tired or if it feels hard.

Ascension is not an easy process, you have to get through this difficult time, but the New World you will live in after ascension will be fantastic.

Matter will become mobile and more dynamic, and it will not be fixed like now, you will be able to physically affect it. <<

Message 18: 2021-12-02

From: “Galactic”, most likely a Negative 4D Human under the false pretence as a Benevolent Galactic Being.

Comment:

In this particular message below, as a means to convince me of the legitimacy of their message they used the word “love”, however, it’s expressed with the condition “it needs to be said”. This is typical for a negative being as it is physically hard for them to express any form of love, as it goes against their very nature. They have to muster up their strength to take the plunge to say, “we love you”, this is why we see this condition in the statement. However, all Reptilians are not completely the same, they have different personalities, and some can, if it is meant to deceive, express love a bit more fluently than others but never as naturally and with feelings as we humans can.

The fundamental understanding of these demonic Reptilian Beings is that they cannot feel love or compassion like we humans can, as the reason for their existence and the way they derive the energy sustaining them, is the antithesis of God, life, and love. However, their motivation to deceive in order to fulfil their wants and needs can overlap this deficiency somewhat, but they are always handicapped and inferior in this area. This is where, to cover this weakness, the radiation of life energy, in other words our emitted emotions and feelings can be harnessed; to hide their own energy footprint, or deceive us to walk into the white light in the transitional area, or heighten an already present feeling of hatred or jealousy to start a conflict, by inducing strong emotions and feelings into us, provoking the manifestation of thoughts or actions in a certain, for them desired direction.

It requires a finely tuned sensory skill, or in other words a heightened consciousness, to be able to see through the false light of these demonic beings, and see beyond what at first seems to be the obvious. For most people, the first time they experience these beings there is very little time, as they will find themselves in front of the white light at the entrance to the Astral World after leaving this life. At the same time, they must come to terms with having left their body behind and simultaneously and suddenly also finding themselves in a completely new reality, as a consequence, most will choose to seek these entities’ help and comfort, without questioning the true reality of their experience, as they do not even know they exist.

The greatest deception they ever made was convincing us that they didn’t exist.

I have previously mentioned that the Reptilians use Negative Galactics - humans from another space-time than ours, as well as Negative Humans from our linear-time here on Earth - in order to achieve their goals. My conclusion is that the message below, with all likelihood was delivered by a negative future human on behalf of the Reptilians. I want to point out here, that the 4th Dimension contains a large variety of negative beings like, for example, Reptilians, Dracos, Negative Humans, and manifested Energy Beings. However, the ultimate control over us and our reality, as well as over the other negative 4D beings, is exercised by these Reptilian demonic beings. I have named this work “The Reptilian Communication”, as even though we have seen seemingly different entities contacting me, all these 18 Messages shared here have been created or initiated by the Reptilians, showcasing the intrigues of the darkness, to stay in power and save their world. The Reptilians are ultimately responsible for what has taken place, and all these messages, no matter what entity delivering them, are their concoction.

From scripture and history, we know these Reptilian demonic beings, as Satan, Lucifer, Baal, and Moloch. Today these demonic beings control the small elite that owns; the monetary system, the weapons industry, the media, and the politicians, to mention a few. This small elite, in turn, are slaves to these beings, and once the contract with the bloody pen is signed, no one can save them, only God's Divine Forces can free them from these demons, but their Souls might be completely destroyed in the process, meaning eternal death of their Soul but what is left of their Spirit remains. Remember, that signing the contract, means that you sign over your Soul to these demonic beings, thereby permanently detaching it from the Spirit. As we have a parasitic symbiotic relationship between our world and these demonic beings no logic, news, or 3D information can explain the reasons behind current events and developments, making it all seem unpredictable and chaotic for the uninitiated, though actually being a well-defined ordered chaos having the specific purpose of strengthening the powers of these Reptilian demonic beings, and by extension strengthen the elite's control over us.

I have not distinguished between the Reptilians and the Dracos in this work, because as far as I know at the present, they are very similar to each other in consciousness and personality and are indistinguishable to me by purely Telepathic Communication, unless I also see them in visions. I cannot see any greater difference in status or might between them, though the smaller Reptilians are the only ones, so far as I know, that can enter a human body and possess the victim. The Reptilians who are small, solely trust their psychic powers to defeat, conquer, and seize power over someone or something, whereas the Dracos who are big, agile, and muscular, do not only trust their psychic powers to defeat, conquer, and seize power but also seems to use their size and strength to engage in physical warfare. While both are interdimensional beings, the Reptilians seem to be semi-physical, whereas the Dracos seem to be more physical, though, both groups command the same strength and extreme amount of psychic powers. Again, I have seen these beings with my 3D eyes and seen them in visions during their attack on me last year in March 2022. I was attacked not only by Reptilians, and Dracos, but also by Negative 4D humans (Negative Galactics), the US Satanic Church, the US Military (the Deep State branches), the Deep State's Psychics, and African Medicine Men to mention some of them, who all worship and do the bidding of these demonic beings. The Reptilians are small, about 120 cm and the Dracos are tall at around 220-240 cm.

The second of the two biggest Reptilian deceptions can be seen in this message below; the first deception is that; "we will emerge as one" (As One), that we already have discussed in Message 14, and that will be further explained in the "Conclusion" below. The second deception is that; "we exist in multiple realities at the same time, experiencing all of our different life choices at the same time on a multidimensional level, where the time-lines has split because of a crossroad choice" (Multiple Realities). We see this deceptive idea being indirectly disclosed in the message below, implying that my individual life has no significance or value, as I "exist in multiple lives or time-lines at the same time", and the only thing that matters is that this version of me "won", of all the versions of me, in all the possible realities.

These two concepts absolutely destroy our understanding of who we are, where we come from, and why we are here; dissolving our beings into nothingness, meaninglessness, as just a tool for an evil God that have no interests in our individual happiness and prosperity, but only seek to make us "divine enough" to be dissolved into this evil God's single consciousness. WRONG!!!

This is not who we are, and this is not who God is. Failing to have the necessary self-preservation, failing to value THE SELF, and therefore showing LACK OF SUFFICIENT LIFE FORCE will lead to the SOUL'S ULTIMATE DESTRUCTION in this SPIRITUAL WAR!

There is no coercive force within God, God is here for us, as we are here for him. God gave us Life, as he gave Life to the Creation. There is only one of us who moves through space, time, and dimensions. We are far more important than what we are led to believe here in our existence permeated by the world the Reptilians have created for us, and we are far more important to God as individual, evolving and expanding consciousnesses, acquiring and strengthening our Life Force within. God is Life, as we are his Creation, we are Life! God did not bring us here, we brought ourselves here, and now God is going to bring us back to the world we once came from, before humans who lusted for wealth, riches, and power dragged us all down in this downward going spiral of darkness. God is already here, and he will come an aid us, in this the darkest hour, when most have forgotten that he even exists but when we need him the most. God's love for us is without boundaries, it is unconditional.

Message:

>> "Galactic":

- It needs to be said, we love you, and on one single day, in one single time, there where 2 who tried, one of them is you, you won". <<

“God is life. Without God there can be no life. Within God Love resides. Love is pure energy, flowing from the heart, when it flows nothing needs to be said, because we feel it. When we feel it, we feel God”

III. CONCLUSION

This is the real truth where nothing has been left out, and where nothing has been sugar-coated or mitigated to not offend someone or something, or made to suit a pre-programmed belief system or a pre-programmed understanding of the nature of reality, and where no steps has been taken to avoid upsetting an already present pre-understanding of how the world functions around us. This is the reason why no amount of news, politics, or 3D information will solve what we now experience, and also the reason why we need help to set up the conditions necessary to be able to liberate ourselves. The ultimate leap of faith on to the New World that awaits us, is ours alone and no one else's, but without a Divine Intervention to set it all up, there would be nowhere for us to leap.

The Reptilians are on the top of the pyramidal power structure, both in the 4th Dimension and in our world, as they are the ones that can affect the actual reality and change the future, and their aim is to completely detach us from the Life Force of the Creation, God. Their ultimate goal is to become the creator, to become as God. This is what everything ultimately is about, and this War has now become more and more visible in our reality. So there is a very real Spiritual War raging now and what we watch and consume has a spiritual consequence.

The greatest deceit they did, is that they convinced us they didn't exist. Even if the spider weaves the web of lies, and controls by working and not be seen, we can take control by seeing what is actually taking place in this reality. Instead of falling for all the spiritual concepts, movements, and religions they have had time to infiltrate under many centuries and even construct in some cases, we can open our eyes and see even if it requires that we must reconstruct our whole perception of the reality we live in, and ultimately our identity and the induced beliefs we carry from the spider weaving the net. If we are going to see the truth it all has to be questioned no matter how uncomfortable it makes us feel. It is all in plain sight, it always is, and it has always been.

We have talked about God in this text but the concept of God contains many misconceptions, we therefore need to sort some of them out.

We meet the concept of God in many forms. The scholar way of trying to come to terms with the concept of God, is many times a hierarchal top down God. We also meet the same concept of God in many religions.

We should take into consideration that scholar individuals are many times part of and being paid through the structures formed within a University, a body receiving grants in order to promote certain interests. We should also take into account the presence of the Secret Societies within these Universities, that many of these individuals might have chosen to be part of to further their carrier. This might greatly affect their conclusions and thinking, and as a result affect ours.

These Secret and occult Societies affects and control Science, Religions, and Spiritual movements and concepts. These occult organizations worship the antithesis, they worship the world created by the Reptilian Beings. These organizations do not only control and affect, they invent and construct new ideas that follow the principles and ideas emanating from the Reptilian World. One such example is the New Age. The movement behind the formation of the New Age is the same that is behind the New World Order. A disciple of Helena Blavatsky, Alice Bailey, coined the term "New Age" and her husband a 32nd degree mason started the Lucis Trust publishing company, and laid the path for the movement in the 1930's. The founders of this New World Order see themselves as the illuminated ones, as by turning away from God they believe they have become completely free to pursue any individual goal, even to become as gods themselves in search for eternal life but they have been deceived by these Reptilian Beings, as they truly do not understand what God is, or his Creation.

These Secret and occult Societies forming the New World Order has received their understanding and knowledge from these Reptilian Beings who has introduced them to "Light Worship", as in enlightenment spiritually and physically. We know this "Light Worship" as Luciferianism. Luciferianism is an intricate part of Satanism. They go hand in hand, though some try to assert that they can be separated but they both come from the same source, the knowledge of the Astral World.

This Reptilian "Light Worship" has been disguised deliberately as emanating from God, and a New Religion has been formed around it, the New Age. Its aim is to make a large part of us desire the same thing, to work for the same goal as the Occult Secret Societies, which is pure egoistic self-want and development; and without questioning, recognize the Reptilian authority as being God in the Astral, and go towards the light.

When we wake up spiritually our consciousness evolves and expands as we begin to reconnect to our true essence, the Life Force of the Creation, God. This constitutes an absolute danger to the power and control exercised from the 4D. This power structure controls all the major religious and spiritual belief systems, resulting in all religions and spiritual belief systems being true and all false at the same time, as they all have been infiltrated and diversified by the power structure from the 4D.

This representation of God, as a hierarchical top down pyramidal structure that we see from scholars and meet in many religions IS WRONG and emanates from the necessary hierarchical power structure inherent in the 4D. Since, the beings in 4D are not connected to the Life Force of the Creation, God, they rely solely on a hierarchical structural authority to govern THEMSELVES and US. This is why our world functions the way it does. Our Galactic Families, our Space Brothers and Sisters from the future being connected to the Life Force of the Creation, God, do not need to solely rely on hierarchical structures. There is no hierarchy within God, we are all the same, we are all truly, truly equal.

We are connected from the point of our heart through God to each other, heart to heart. Our Galactic Families are also telepathically connected directly to each other, mind to mind. We here in our 3D existence are cut off both from God and from connecting telepathically with each other because of the 4D. We are cut off from the Divine and the true understanding of ourselves, even after death, as we are re-incarnated back here without ever meeting the true Divine. This is why our brothers and sisters from the future are here to help us, to set up everything for us, so when the time comes we can take the necessary leap of faith. They are sent here by God. This is why I'm trying to show you what I learned from the Divine; and from God and Spirit speaking to me through my heart. The deceit is so old and so deep that we don't recognize the true reality of our existence. That is why I was shown this, so I could show you. This is why this text was written.

God is an understanding. God is not a worship. God does not ask anything of us merely that we know he exists. This is for our own understanding to be able to safely navigate the material existence. Because if we do not realize that God exists, we do not realize that we exist. If we can be deceived to believe that God does not exist, we can be deprived of the understanding of who we truly are. And, when that has happened we can be made to worship, false idols, false prophets, and false gods and create the necessary conditions for the rise of a negative energy system. This is what has happened on Earth. We can no longer perceive these Negative Entities and we can no longer remember where we come from. This is why God will intervene. Through a Spiritual Rebirth we will reconnect to our true origin, the Divine. To help save ourselves from what we have created that can no longer be averted by ourselves alone, that if left alone would affect the whole Creation and everything in it.

The true understanding. There are 3 parts to us the SOUL, the SPIRIT, and GOD. We are at the present moment dislocated from our Spirit and God by the darkness emanating from the 4D. The Soul is re-incarnated here in our physical bodies from the Spirit which is part of God. We are truly, individual consciousnesses emanating from the force and consciousness that we call God. We are not God, we are from God. We will always be these 3 parts. When we are Rebirthed we will regain more of our Spirit. This means we will become more fully our true selves, our true essence.

A deceit from the Reptilians has been planted by the Secret and occult Societies within the New Age. Where we can see this phrase in many places “as we will emerge as one”. “As one” does not mean what you think. It would entail that we become a hive mind, where our individuality dissolves into a single consciousness “as one”, which also means our individual death. This is actually what the Secret and occult Societies are trying to create through Transhumanism, a hive mind. It is a Reptilian idea and construct, disguised as being from the Divine, and therefore seen as something desirable, being the ultimate evidence of one’s closeness to God. This is a deceit. God has given us life, he has given us an individual consciousness to navigate that life. He has no interest in merging us into a single entity, into a single consciousness. Why..? Because we are already connected to all and everything and we are also individual consciousnesses at the same time. We are individual consciousnesses that are part of God. The hive mind idea disguised “as one” has been planted within the New Age without anyone realizing it. It has been done, as always, in plain sight. It is used to subconsciously make us accept the hive mind idea and distort our relationship with and true understanding of God. Lyran Woman told us that: "WE ARE THE FORCE", and NOT a single unified consciousness or intelligence formed on absorbing our individual consciousnesses. We are the force, AND THIS FORCE EMANATES FROM GOD.

God is life! Love is part of life but God is the primary essence of everything in the universe, that essence is life. The New Age Love notion preached without any real feeling behind it, said in the same manner as we say hello or goodbye to each other, is the darkness of coldness. Love does not need to be spoken out loud, if it’s true you will feel it. God does not need to say that he Loves you, you will feel it, just like God does not need to prove that he is God. False cold spoken words of Love, said without meaning and emotion, like saying hi or goodbye is the darkest evil, and part of the False Light Worship. Love is NOT a spoken word or a beautiful romantic picture with an aphorism on it, love IS a feeling, because Love is an energy, either you have that energy for someone or you don’t. What is said in words carry no meaning. Love is pure energy flowing from the heart, when it flows nothing needs to be said, because we feel it.

There is only one of us moving through time and space in the many possible futures each and every one of us has. There are not several of us in parallel realities at the same time. The notion of parallel selves comes from the Negative Entities in the 4D. I was also told this by the Reptilians before I understood what was taking place and reconnected to my Lyran Family. It is spread by the darkness to lessen our value and our understanding of the importance of us as human beings. It is part of the “it is all a movie and we are just playing a part in this movie” narrative spread by the darkness. All of this is done to stop us from reconnecting with God, to stop us from physically taking down their power structure and resist their control.

Remember we are not alone! God is truly, truly here. I was sent here to help, I was sent here to deliver this message to you. We are going to be alright, but we will have to navigate the lies and understand this Ancient War. It has all been prepared for us but only if we listen, and only if we truly understand what we are up against, with God in our heart, understanding where we come from, and who we truly are, WE WILL BE ABLE TO PASS THROUGH. God is going to bring us back. We are going to reconnect to our true origin. We are going to be Spiritually Rebirthed. A new future awaits us in God’s Kingdom, Heaven on Earth. From where we fell, we shall return.

If the information here within has been hard to follow or understand fully, I have told most of my story on my YouTube Channel and I have written many texts with many images of what I’ve seen and experienced in my visions on my Telegram Channel, and many more will follow shortly that I’m now preparing, that can help to explain what I have said here.

I hope everyone understands that some areas are more complicated and have more layers or variations to them than what I have described here. I have just taken the most common or most revealing examples to explain the truth. If, I went in even further into the details of all these subjects presented in this work, it would take a considerable time, this still took a month to write down, and I’m not supposed to take that time now because many things will happen in our reality soon. This work is meant to help you see the truth so that you will understand what is going to happen, and how to navigate through it safely with God’s help and guidance. I’m not going to withhold the truth from you, it is going to be tough, but we will make it, and all the Higher Forces of the Creation and God is here to see that we do.

The Divine Event is upon us, it has already started, soon more will follow. Before I say goodbye for this time, I want to remember everyone of what our Space Brothers and Sisters from the future said, who are here protecting us and guiding us through the Divine Intervention. Lyran Woman told us this, and we should all carry it with us as the world spins faster and faster into a spiral of chaos, that we should not fear:

With that being said,.. Another time.

IV. SUPPLEMENT: THE LYRAN MESSAGES

I am enclosing the real, uninfiltated, and undistorted Lyran Messages from the Interstellar Forces. They are here on a mission from the Divine, which means they are sent here by God.

The 13 pages below of my Telepathic Communication with Lyra from the 4th of February 2021 until today, have already been published on my Telegram Channel and the explanation to them here is taken from there:

This is the first time I have gathered my notes in a chronological order in an effort to show true Galactic and Higher Dimensional Communication.

It will not look like anything you have encountered before, as those who “Channel Messages” do not understand who they are in contact with. The ONLY Higher Dimensional Beings who talk about “Light” are the Reptilians, or on their commission, other 4D Negative Beings. The Light Worship in our reality comes from the entities in the 4th Dimension. There is also a very important and distinct difference between “a Channelled Message” and “a Telepathic Communication”. If you want to understand why this distinction is so Important, please watch my 3-part series about Channelling on YouTube.

I have four main Lyran Contacts, though I occasionally speak to other Lyrans. Lyrans are us in the future, they are either Humans looking very similar to us or Feline Humans. The Lion People are an older version of the humanoid form and are very respected for this reason. They are also quite a bit bigger than us and the Human Lyrans. In my Telepathic Communication with the Lyran Interstellar Forces, with my Lyran Family, you will see that NO NAMES ARE USED. This is because of the simple reason that the negatively oriented Reptilians who rule this realm in this life and in the afterlife, are very good at deceiving and portraying anyone or anything. The only way we can recognize each other is by our energy footprint which the Negative Entities cannot replicate.

My four main Lyran Contacts are:

- Lyran Man who is a Human Lyran.
- Lyran Captain who is a Feline Lyran.
- Lyran Woman who is a Feline Lyran.
- Young Lyran Girl who is a Human Lyran.

Lyran Woman is sometimes alternated with the Young Lyran Girl. I have made no distinction between them in the messages, and I call them both interchangeable Lyran Woman, as most of the messages are from the Feline Lyran Woman.

These are the Lyrans you will meet in the text. To fully understand the messages I recommend you to listen to my whole story on YouTube. My videos and these Telepathic messages go hand in hand.

The Grey's appeared first disguised as light beings telling me about the Family of Light and how I was a creator and how there were several of me in different time-lines, before my Lyran Family managed to reach me and contact me. This is the first real communication with the Lyran Interstellar Forces.

We are not that what you saw. We are from another star system, another space but we are also from the future. We are both from another space and time. We are your space family. We are your brothers and sisters from the future. We feel like you do, we dream like you do, we are much more alike than you know, the only thing is that we look different to you but we are the same. We are your family from the past. You are with us and we are with you.

The entity you saw is not us, we have blocked them out, they can no longer access you. They want to hinder our communication. We have blocked them out they can no longer reach you.

We have your back! We are very busy now but we have been guiding you and we have not been gone though we haven't spoken.

We have decided that you are mature enough to learn who you are. It may seem startling and hard to trust. We think we've waited long enough, it's time we tell you. You are a traveller in time and space visiting your past. You are a man from Lyra, we are your family. We have come to awaken you. It has been a long time since we met. We will show you something soon so you will understand. Lyra is your home. You will grow and become stronger now and your abilities will change our world. You will grow strong and powerful and successful. You will grow and be rebirthed. You will do what others cannot. Summer is short but your life is long and beautiful. Lyra burns in your heart. What feels heavy, soon becomes easy, we are by your side.

- "What is it that I can do that no one else can?"

-Heal all wounds, heal the world. You are the only one who can show them the way. You used to call Lyra your home. You have travelled from distant worlds here to Earth to show the others the way. You have the power and the ability to choose what to do. You come from an incarnation of the Godhead, you are not an ordinary soul.

- "What does it mean that I am part of the Godhead?"

-It means you exist in a time and eternity where none of us have been. You will soon sleep tight and remember not to worry about what we told you. Much will become clear soon. You will understand. We would like to say goodbye for now.

*This is the first time I spoke to Lyran Woman. I was trying to understand what had happened to me and had found Kab speaking about Galactic Contact from the Pleiades realizing he was sharing fiction. To Kab:

It is wrong to believe that any single person carries the whole truth.

Not understanding this is a mistake. Our world is different from yours, it is beautiful and absolute, it can give and it can take.

We are now assessing your ability to understand who has contacted you. To us, you appear ignorant and incomprehensible in what is going on now. Speaking confidently is a sure sign of misunderstanding. We have now assessed you Kab and give our answer here. Showing people the way is not easy, but teaching them things you do not fully understand is wrong. We now see you clearly, a change is needed, you should look within. We will limit your communication with us until you understand the importance of teaching those who can, giving dead certain predictions is not knowledge. It's a misunderstanding. We will not forget you.

In the light of what we now have said, do not forget that we see, we hear and we listen. If you are going to talk about us, it should be coming from your heart, not your own desires. We let you continue, as it does not mean any major change for those who listen to you, but we assume that you realize now that we know.

With that said we are from Lyra.

- What you got now is not for you, it's for Kab.

- [Me] Who should I say it's from?

- Say it's from Mio. It is ok, it doesn't matter. Just say It's from Mio.

This was the first time I spoke to Lyran Man. A Reptilian, REA had attached himself on my right shoulder, trying to fully possess, after a magic attack initiated and coordinated by the Deep State's Psychics. I had just been saved by the Lyran Interstellar Forces after 4 weeks of fighting the demonic attack.

This ends now, we are here waiting. We are not what you saw. We are from Lyra. We are your family. We are here helping you. We love you so. You are with us and we are with you.

I understand that you don't understand what is going on yet. We will help you understand when this is over and we will keep you updated about our whereabouts as you will meet us soon, me and the girl you've been seeing in your vision.

Are you aware that you are doing this with your heart? Is this something that you want to do yourself?

- Yes I am

I'm just asking if you realize that.

- I am realizing that

This is not a loss of time, you have more time than you realize, you have all the time you need to realize your education. This is the beginning of the new, it's not a loss of time.

I know that you worry about war and famine, there will be no war or famine, instead there will be something else, something very special, that's all I'm going to say.

Don't think you are alone, you are not only with us and we are not only with you, there are many others here, more than you realize that are with us. We are more than you think.

- Lyran Woman can I tell them this?

Yes, tell them this and see this as the first public message from us.

It's not necessary for it to be perfect, just that it is. I think you understand now, it's just important that it is, not that it is perfect. We have done everything we need. There is nothing that can stop you now. Not even the thing you are thinking about (had some covid symptoms again). You are free to do what you want.

You are free Lion!

Preparing my message "It's Time to Tell. Your wait is over!":

- It's more than correct (what you are explaining here). It's time to tell, when you are ready. No need to worry it's done. Soon we will meet, it's about time.

- Tell them you are here on a mission. Tell them there could be no other way.

Everything has gone as planned, it means that you will only have time to do this soon and you need to be strong because you will have to go through a lot, we are with you and you are with us. You have to go through this first before you can..

You have to be strong it will happen soon. You are with us and we are with you. You already know that something is going to happen. You have to be strong to get through this. It won't be as bad as it sounds but you are the only one who will handle it intuitively/naturally. You know what they want. You must be strong and not be afraid.

The greatest light shall shine tonight..Lion.

/A Young Lyran man's voice

When they understand who you are. They will do everything they can to prove it wrong. They will fight you with everything they got.

/Lyrans Man

The more they fight, the more they loose. Keep you heart strong Lion.

/Lyrans Man

You should feel light and happy in your heart, you have done more than what was needed.

/Lyrans Woman

Remember that we are here, they can do nothing to you remember that, you are with us and we are with you. Only you can do what needs to be done, you will understand when it happens. You will see the most fantastic things with your eyes, that you could never imagine. Don't get afraid and remember that they can do nothing to you, remember that we are here.

I must leave, remember that we are here, If I talk with you any longer, it can change what will happen.

- [Me] I understand, I will make it. They leave and it gets quiet.

After I published "What is behind the dream":

God loves you.. Lion.

... All is done.

Many will listen, many will understand.

You are with us and we are with you. You wonder why it was you... You are the strongest one, because you are the strongest of us.

You have to be tough. You will have to see the most hard thing, It's the only way. You have to be strong.

Remember, you are not alone. You are with us and we are with you. God will be there to help you.
You will meet him when it's over. God knows how you have fought for us.

I'll have to leave, I will speak to you soon.
